LUNSFORD JOURNEYS TO CODAJAZ AND COARI

By Robert B. Lunsford

Manaus, Amazonas
 Sept. 18, 1958

Dear Bro. Overbey and Brethren:

In my last letter I mentioned that I was going to Codajaz for a visit, because their pastor was sick and here in Manaus, also that after he arrived that his wife had gotten sick and brought the family to Mauaus also. Bro. Miguel is the same as well, and is going back home this week. He had a pharmacist come to his house and lance his wife's breast, and when I said that was a dangerous thing to do, he said he couldn't afford to take her to the hospital. She is not well yet, so he is leaving her and the family here for the next month while he goes to take care of the Church.

Codajaz

Codajaz is one hour and fifteen minutes distance from Manaus by plane, and I left here the 23rd of August and arrived there at 6:45 a.m. and went to the house of Bro. Miguel where I arranged my hammock and got ready to light housekeep. A boy carried me some water from the river, which I boiled to have drinking water, and some of the members came in and swept the house for me. Before I was ready to prepare anything to eat, the Church had gotten together and decided that I would do no cooking, but eat at the house of one of the members with all of them bringing in things to help with the food problem. At this time of year it is hard to find much of a variety, but I was well fed.

Uricuri

I didn't preach every night, but told them that I wanted to hear the ones of them who had been leading the services. The Church has four men who preach well. They don't only preach at the church, but they make trips to different places for services. I went with one of them to the other side of the river, where they have services regularly. It is called Uricuri. There is a great possibility that they will organize a church there before many months. There were 42 people in the service the night we were there, and a thousand mosquitoes for each person. It was all that I could do to play the accordion for them. They not only fed off my left hand, which doesn't move much, but my back, legs, and face. I really admire people like them who will come for a service under circumstances like that. They were moving just a little short of a dance all through the service, but they were not missing a word. The next morning we had a service at seven, and 38 came for it. I hope to get to go there some time later when I can stay longer. We had services twice in the lake back of Codajaz, in the day time, where some of the members live. Of course there were the regular services in the Church, and they were well attended and the people were attentive. There were a few Catholics who came to the windows and listened, who evidently were not solely interested in music, because they stayed through the preaching also.

Coari

On the second Monday there I got an opportunity to get passage on a good boat to Coari. It took 15 hours to get there. A Baptist church was organized there in 1932, but was taken away by the Convention Baptists in 1939. They have no pastor, and have had none for many months. There is a woman missionary there who preaches when she takes a notion. I preached in a home there, but had no opportunity to preach in the Church. I went to one of their services and then had to play the organ for them. A man, a good speaker, was in charge of the service, but if he had not had women to lead the prayer, make announcements, and lead the singing, I don't know whether he could have had a service or not.

While in Coari I went to the home of the father of Bro. Cido. I took the accordion and played and sang hymns, and the nieces of Bro. Cido and others helped to sing, but when it was time to go to Church, I asked them to go with me, and they said no, and I could tell that it was because they were Catholics. Cido's father said he would like to go, but that he had to be on the job at eight. He is a night watchman at a saw mill. He has a Bible and reads it a lot, and when I asked him about being saved, he said, "I believe in God". This is the common answer of people with a Catholic background, and it is hard to get them to see that to believe in God is not enough. The best of the Catholics will argue with you that they are teaching Jesus as the Saviour. When I was at Uricuri I asked all who believed in Jesus to lift their hands and nearly all of them lifted their hands. They do believe that he was born of a virgin, died on the cross, and that he arose from the dead, but their faith for salvation is in the Catholic church and whatever it teaches, such as baptism for salvation, observing communion to aid baptism to save, making their confessions, buying things at exorbitant prices to be blessed, and buying masses for the dead; and all these things have to be mixed with the words, "holy Mary mother of God", to have any value for them. It is really pitiful to find people devoted to their ignorance.

Witnesses to Catholic Priest

While traveling on the boat to Coari, I had the opportunity to tell an Italian priest the plan of salvation. He took no offense, and remained friendly all during the trip. I didn't have a room on the boat, and when it neared dark, he offered to share his room with me. This is out of the ordinary, because they pay for a room in such a way that they are the only occupant. I thanked him and told him that within a few hours I would arrive where I was going, but I was tempted to buy passage for another town farther up the river and share the room, in order to get to talk to him more. I know where he lives, and maybe I will have the opportunity to talk to him another day. In Codajaz also I got to talk to a priest, but in altogether a different manner. During the conversation I told him what we preached about being saved. I really went to ask him if he would sell me a large boat they have for sale. I met him in the street and asked him what they wanted for the boat. He told me that they only wanted 25,000 cruzeiros for it, but that he wouldn't sell it to me under any circumstances. He said that they were in peace until the missionaries from the States came there, and that our message was one of hate. He called us protestants, and I explained that we weren't protestants. He said there was only one true way. He was beginning to say that they were the true way, but I interrupted him to tell him that that was what we preached, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved", that He was the way, the truth and the life. He finally said that he didn't know me, and that he didn't want to know me, and that he didn't want to discuss the subject any further, so I told him that there was one thing more to be said and told him again that I was not a protestant and that he could do whatever he wished to at his church, that in Brazil we are free, but that I wanted him to remember one thing for sure, that we as Baptists are free also. We were talking in English since he is from the U. S. A. also. His name is Matthews and he is from Michigan. The head priest there they all call George, but they said he had gone to Benton, Ky. on a furlough and would be back in December. They say that he is a gentleman and is respected as such, even by the Baptists of Codajaz. The priests may not care to know us, but if they had the truth, they would want to know us in order to tell us the truth. I would like to get to tell them all the plan of salvation, that hearing they might believe and be saved.

Four Professions; Six Baptized

On this trip, so far as I know there weren't any professions of faith. If I were a hand counter, and wanted to make a big sounding report, I could give some results. Bro. Aguiar and Bro. Newton were visiting in a home and had been talking about the Bible to the people. They were about ready to leave, and the man asked them to stay and tell them more. Before they left the man and woman professed faith in the Lord. The man is a man of many years for a Brazilian. Also where the New Church has services in Santa Louisa on Friday evenings, the man and woman who live downstairs have professed faith also. Bro. Santiago baptized six at one time in the New Baptistry at Tabernacle, and the first Sunday night next month they have more to be baptized.

May the Lord bless all of you in the States is our prayer.

Yours sincerely,
 Bruce Lunsford.

Suits of Clothes For Native Missionaries

By H. H. Overbey

We have been able to buy some "Wash 'N Wear" suits of clothes at less than half price. In fact we have been able to buy a suit of clothes with two extra pair of pants (one coat and three pants) for about $20.00. We have bought these suits on faith believing that the Lord will lead several to help pay for them. The Ladies Bible Class, New Hope Baptist Church, Dearborn, Michigan has taken the lead and sent an offering of $40.00 to buy two suits. Who will be next to buy one or more suits? Send offerings marked "For Suits for Native Missionaries".

Thanksgiving Conference, Nov. 24 - 27

By H. H. Overbey

We extend you a cordial invitation to attend the Fourth Annual Thanksgiving Conference at Canfield Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit, Michigan.

Those who are coming should write us and give the names of all who are coming, husband, wife and children. Give age of children, which are boys and which are girls, so we will know how to arrange for beds. This is important. If you are coming write and tell us so we can arrange for beds and meals. Do it now. We will furnish free beds and free meals.

Those who arrive on Monday afternoon, Nov. 24, please come to the pastor's home at 1210 East Grand Boulevard for supper. Supper will be served from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. It costs money to eat on the road or in a restaurant after you arrive. The food will be on the table, self-serve, ready for you. Don't let it go to waste.

If at the last minute you decide to come and do not have time to write—then come on and we will have a place for you. Get up a car load and share the expense of gas and oil and come on and stay for every service.

John Hatcher Busy Visiting Churches

By John Hatcher

Oct. 1, 1958.

Dear Brethren:

First of all we want to say that we deeply appreciate each and everything that the churches and people have done for us since we have been back to the States. It has been a real joy to visit with our old friends and with the churches that support the Mission work. The interest that the churches and pastors show toward the work is encouraging and we thank God praying that He will raise up many more to send and more to go.

Churches Visited

We have visited about twenty-two churches since being home and while at most of them we have shown our slides of the work, which the people have seemingly greatly enjoyed as they show so well the people and the places where we work.

We have visited the following churches: Canfield Avenue, New Hope, Maple Grove, Immanuel, East Southfield, in and around the Detroit area; Home, and Faith churches at Mt. Morris; Gilead of Glendale, Ky., the home church of my wife; First Baptist Church of Alexandria, my home church where my wife and I are members now; Faith in Jackson, Mich; Home Acres in Grand Rapids; Liberty in Flint, Mich; Roseland in Windsor, Canada; Calvary church, Corinth, East Maine and Jordan in the Chicago area; Peoples Baptist Church, Alton, Ill., which is the church from which we went out to Brazil; Pleasant Plains in Pleasant Plains, Ill. Ashland Avenue Baptist Church, Lexington, Ky., and the Madeira Baptist Church of Madeira, Ohio.

Future Engagements

During the month of October we will be in meetings with the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, the Bryan Station Baptist Church of Lexington and the Ryan Road Baptist Church of Detroit. In November we will be in the Eastern Kentucky area, and at the Thanksgiving Conference at Canfield Avenue in Detroit, and in December we will be in the Alton, Illinois area. In January we will plan to visit the churches in Florida. In March we will be in the Western Kentucky area and in April in the Central Kentucky area. We plan to keep the last month and a half before returning to Brazil reserved to preparations so we will not be visiting churches after the first of June. If you would like for us to come and tell of the work and show the pictures of the work we would be happy to do so.

Sincerely,
John A. Hatcher.

People Saved in the Acre Territory; Calley Well After Illness

By Paul Calley

Cruzeiro do Sul,
Acre, Brazil, S. A.
September 22, 1958.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

In my last letter to you I said in closing that we planned on starting another long trip up the Jurua river if my wife's health permitted, the Lord willing. But before we could get ready I came down with the flu and was sick for about a week. Then my wife's health began to fail again and she lost weight and could not keep very much on her stomach and the doctor that we have here diagnosed that she had liver trouble and was run down. But we thank God that she is slowly regaining her health again and is feeling better, and the Lord willing we plan again to start upstream this coming week.

But this last month hasn't been lost in the work of the gospel by no means. While we have been here in Cruzeiro do Sul this last month we have been concentrating on spreading the gospel in this wicked town and the Lord has blessed. On Sunday evening, September 14, Brother Rodrigues baptized a young mother who was saved one night when we were preaching and a young girl about 16 years old who came for baptism after I preached on what baptism means on a Sunday morning. She was saved some time ago when Brother Rodrigues was preaching.

Lauerman and Helpers Working the Rivers; Girl Saved in Home

By Walter Lauerman

Iquitos, Peru, S. A.
September 19, 1958.

Dear Brethren:

Once again we write. We are all well and enjoying the blessings of the Lord. The Lord is always good, but we fail to see this many times. The past month it seems like all I do is prepare for my sermons and then preach them. I have gone to Astoria every weekend this past month. Juan Ruis went with me and sometimes another would go also. The Lord seemingly is blessing more every week as Astoria. Last Sunday night there were over 50 present. We need room badly and are looking for a larger place. More seem to come (new people) every service and seem very interested. I pray that the Lord will save some that I have on my heart. I preached once every week and hope to increase this more and go for midweek services also. I have preached to more lost people in the past two months here than the past two years in the U. S. A. I want to start a Sunday school in Astoria as soon as I think I can handle it properly or get Juan Ruis to do it. Pray for this work and the people there.

Juan Castro and Simon have gone to Mapa Cocha every weekend also. These are two faithful Brethren. The crowds there have not been quite as good as at Astoria, but are staying around 25 in the mornings and less at night. I may go a week or so with Juan there this month. I told Juan to keep sowing the seed and in His good time God will bring forth fruit if we are faithful in our preaching. These Brethren not only are preaching on Sunday but Juan still visits in Iquitos every day and Simon every week is on the rivers preaching. Juan Ruis works as a painter during the week (when there is work for him). I do hope to go with Simon more when I can preach better in

We have been having services five and six days a week (when traveling the rivers, every night) and the gospel has been preached at three new preaching points in Cruzeiro do Sul this past month. We have had services on both ends of town, in the middle and on the outskirts and the attendance has been fair. We have an election going on here in the Acre now and about every night there is some kind of political meeting and I don't have to tell you that they have been having the larger crowds. Today a Catholic priest arrived in town from Rio Branco, the capital of the Acre and he is in politics up to his ears, robes and all. I hear that he has been forbidden by his superiors to hold political rallies but he had one today in the afternoon and made a political speech in the town square just the same.

Brother Cido, the pastor in Mourapiranga reported the good news of two professions of faith of the young people there this month. Brother Mario's wife arrived in town today from Japiim and said that all was well with the church there and that they had been having good services. She said Brother Mario was going to Barao, an Indian village about five hours travel by water from Japiim to preach at the preaching point there one day next week. In closing, we covet your earnest prayers. Sometimes we are on top of the mountain and sometimes we are down in the valley, crying out to God to lift the burden.

May God give us grace to be in the center of it will.

Yours in Christ,
Paul M. Calley.

Spanish. Most all the waters are down now and one can only go on the larger rivers. We love these brethren and hope to go with them and in some way help them as they are all willing. These brethren preach real well.

Our hired girl was saved a few weeks ago in our home, and then her father took her away on his farm. She said she will return in November and then wants to be baptized also. Brother Lewis says that the attendance at the church has increased this month also, which usually always is true when a church gets missionary minded. Javier Freitas and I also visited two weeks in the mornings in another area of Iquitos with intentions of starting a new work in this needy area. There are many such areas here in Iquitos. Pray that these things might come to pass according to His good will. May the Lord bless all of you and His churches.

Yours in Him,
Walter F. Lauerman.

LEWIS HOLDING THE HOME FRONT FAITHFULLY

By M. E. Lewis

Iquitos, Peru, Sept. 23, 1958.

Dear Friends:

We rejoice in the goodness of the Lord. It has been my privilege to preach to some very attentive people this month and I am certain that the Word will not return void. We are having an attendance of about seven in our Monday and Friday night classes.

Simon Giama advises me that Catholic opposition is raising up its ugly head in Picuroyaco again. A priest had a meeting with all the families and is trying to get them to run off the "evangelicals" as he calls all who are not Catholics. One man rose up and stated that he was a believer in Jesus Christ and that religious freedom was still guaranteed in the Peruvian constitution and that he was not going to let the priest influence him. I thank God for men who will take their stand for the truth. Undoubtedly Catholicism is spreading in Peru. The only school in Iquitos that graduates school teachers is run by a group of Spanish nuns.

I have finished drawing a chart on the trail of blood and intend to teach it in the near future. I am preaching on the home front while Juan Castro, Simon Gaima, Juan Ruis and Walter Lauerman make their raids on Satan's strongholds on the rivers. I thank all those who remember me and mine in their prayers. May the Lord bless each one of you.

By His Grace,
Mitchell Lewis.

An Example of How To Give a Special Offering

By H. H. Overbey

While in Alderson, West Virginia in a Bible Conference in July 1957, Pastor Joe Wilson told me that he would like for each Native Missionary in Brazil and each preacher in the Preacher's School in Manaus, Amazonas, Brazil to have a copy of T. P. Simon's book, "A Systematic Study of Bible Doctrine" that is printed in Portuguese. Brother Wilson went back and told his people about the need and Temple Baptist Church, Appalachia, Virginia raised $48.00 to buy these books. John Hatcher bought the books in Brazil and each Brazilian Preacher now has one of these books in Portuguese. Brother Wilson was interested, and got the need on his heart, and led his church to give the money to buy them. This is a small church, but they did it. Any pastor that gets really interested in Missions can lead his church to give a special offering. If we could get fifty pastors really interested in the Preacher's School Building in Manaus, Brazil and in the Launch for John Hatcher we could soon raise the money to build them. Try it and the Lord will bless you.

Detroit Thanksgiving Conference — How To Get There

Canfield Avenue Baptist Church is located at East Canfield and Helen Avenues, about three miles from downtown Detroit on the East side. Come out Gratiot Avenue which is route U. S. 25, to East Grand Blvd., and turn right for two blocks to East Canfield Avenue and turn right one block to the Church and parking lot. If you come on the Edsel Ford Expressway, which is route U. S. 12, exit at Mt. Elliott Avenue. Turn right on Mt. Elliott Avenue for nine-tenths of a mile and turn left on East Forest Avenue for five-tenths of a mile and turn right on East Grand Blvd. one block and turn right on East Canfield Avenue one block to Church. (Cut this out and put in your purse).

"Map"

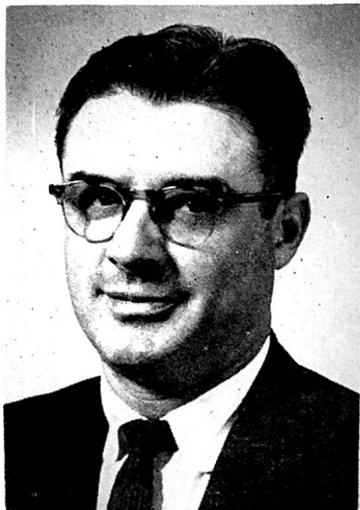

If you would like to have a map of the City of Detroit, showing location of church and how to get there, write and ask for "Map of Detroit" and we will be happy to send you one.
