Last Letter Before Returning to Brazil . . . Appeal for Funds . . .

Dear Fellow-saints, January 7, 2004

This will be the last letter before my trip to Brazil to start up this two year term. I leave out the last Saturday of this month and arrive in Cuiaba on Sunday morning after Sunday School. I've had to schedule this trip on the weekend in order for my family to be able to take me to the airport in St. Louis. I'm praying that the Brazilian government will back off on their retaliation of fingerprinting and photographing all Americans who enter into the country. If they don't I will probably miss my flight out of Sao Paulo to Cuiaba and be stuck for a day there.

This past month we visited the Faith Baptist Church in Versailles, Ky, the South Irvine Baptist Church, South Irvine, Ky and the Addyston Baptist Church in Addyston, Ohio, where we had the special treat to be with former missionaries Ed and Connie Kittle who were a great help to us many years ago in Brazil. Since the 15th of December we have been staying closer to home visiting relatives, family, friends and churches closer. I am starting to think about packing my suitcase. Ursula has already packed one full for me to take to the preacher's wives and children (used clothing). I have the ticket bought and all documents in order.

News from Brazil continues to be mostly good. You know as well as I do that not all is always good. We continue to pray for Pastor Joao Candido who has terminal cancer in the liver. He is very ill and won't last too long. We are thankful we have a young preacher, Rubson Rodrigues, who is filling in right now in that church. Another one of our young families have gone back to Sao Paulo for two weeks to see family after having been separated for four years. One of our preachers has passed the college entrance exam and will start this month to school so he can be a teacher to help him stay on the field in that new work at Jd. Fortaleza.

Bothers, last month I made an appeal for the general fund. I continue to do that. Also, I ask that you pray about helping out in our As Needed Fund project. We have three families who are on new fields where there is not employment to sustain them. We have to help them monthly. Also, we are trying to help them go to school to be teachers in the public schools in their community. Some of you are already helping in this. We pray that this offering will be sustained so that we can continue to do this project. We thank so much you that are helping in this. Ursula and I are planning on two more two year terms in Central Brazil. During this time we have for a goal seeing the new missions organized into churches and to see the works totally independent of any financial help from outside sources. We want the work to go forward after we are gone.

Pray for me as I return. Ursula will stay behind while I spend two months there to get things up and going. Her doctor hasn't released her yet to go. I will come back in April to get her. God bless you all.

In Him, Harold & Ursula Draper (See Page Two For Another Letter From The Drapers')

Death Of A Friend . . . Travel Many Miles . . . Ready To Visit . . .

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Beloved Savior: January 31, 2004

It is now 6pm. We just now learned of the death of Dr. Raymond B. Kays, 83, of Richmond KY. Brother Kays was pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Richmond while I was pastor at Newby Baptist Church. He was the evangelist with me at Newby in the summer of 1955 or 1956. May the Lord bless all of us who were made sad to know of his departure.

During this Mission Sheets month, I preached 6 sermons and Marie and I heard 9 sermons.

Sunday morning, January 4th, we attended Glen's Creek Baptist Church in Versailles KY, and I preached the message. David Fee is the pastor. We thank you, Steve and Eva Blake, for taking us there. We (Marie and I) traveled many miles to fulfill our preaching appointments.

On Friday night, the 9th of January, at around 10:00, we left Lexington on a Greyhound Bus bound for Atlanta, Georgia, where we arrived some nine hours later. After an hour's wait, we boarded another bus which took us to Ocala FL where our son and grandson, Stephen and Stephen Matthew, met us at the bus station at 4pm. Saleth, Stephen's wife, met us at the restaurant where we ate, and afterward they took us to their home where we spent some nine days.

2004 SPRING MISSIONS CONFERENCE April 19, 20, 21

Thompson Road Baptist Church - Lexington KY

Conference Theme: THE JOY OF GIVING (2 Corinthians 8:1-9; 9:7)

MISSIONS is GIVING - First, God's giving Himself and His Son to us - and then our giving God's grace back to Him in return. MISSIONS is the giving of your love, your service, your interest, your family, your prayers...and yes, your offerings. And, God loves a cheerful giver.

PLEASE NOTE THE DATES AND PLAN TO ATTEND. We would love to have every supporting church represented at our Conferences. We encourage every church to send at least your pastor and pay his traveling and motel expenses to come. We preach and promote missions and give full reports and presentations of the ministries of our missionaries. There is no better way to learn about Baptist Faith Missions, cultivate friendships and fellowship, and be inspired for personal commitment and involvement in missions than by personal attendance at our Conferences

- A MESSAGE FOR PASTORS -

In visiting churches I often see stacks of MISSION SHEETS that have been placed on a table or in a tract rack. The only conclusion to arrive at is that many MISSION SHEETS are going unread. Here are a few suggestions as to how you can get your people to read the MISSION SHEETS.

1. Get to know your missionary. When the missionaries are home on furlough always have them visit your church. If possible have a church-wide dinner so your people can get to know the missionary and his family personally. Perhaps the women of the church could have a special service or meal with the missionary's wife as speaker. People will be more likely to read a letter from someone they know than from someone who is a stranger.

2. Before putting the MISSION SHEETS out for the church, read it yourself. Then when you put them out, call attention to some special need a missionary has or to some interesting experience that the missionary writes about that you think would be of interest to the people. One pastor that we know of passes the MISSION SHEETS out at the beginning of the mid-week service and gives the people fifteen minutes to read them. Needless to say, his people have an interest in missions.

3. Have some young person stand at the door and pass them out as the people are leaving the service. If you have called attention to some special need in a missionary's letter, hopefully, they will read that letter as well as the entire MISSION SHEET.

4. Stress the importance of the MISSION SHEET. It takes far less time to read the entire MISSION SHEET than it does the Sunday newspaper or any section of it. Stress the importance of reading about what God is doing through your mission giving.

Thank You . . . From Richard Turner

Dear Brethren,

January 18, 2004

I want to thank all who have prayed for me during my sickness. Two weeks ago after having an X-Ray of my chest and a cat-scan of the lymph nodes which have returned to normal size, the doctor said that my cancer has gone into remission and I would need no more treatments. Without doubt, God has graciously heard your prayers and shown mercy to me. Praise His great and holy name.

I also want to thank you all who sent gifts to help with my medical expenses. You have been very gracious and caring to me. God has taken care of it all through you. You don't need to send anymore.

Thank you! Thank You! In Him,
Richard A. Turner

Pray for Bro. Marvin Summers

While in Florida Brother Marvin Summers, Pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, Dearborn Heights Michigan and a BFM director became very ill and had to be taken to the hospital. After several days he was able to fly home but continues to be very ill and will be unable to preach for several weeks. Please remember him in prayer. Nathan's Update And Request . . .

Dear praying friends,

February 4, 2004

Greetings from Kitale. It is now the second month of the New Year, and it seems that the time continues to pass faster and faster each year. May we ever be more committed to serving the Lord this year than ever before. I will give you an update on the work here for the past month, as well as share prayer requests.

I am thrilled with some news that I received lately from the prison. When I first started teaching and discipling the prisoners last year, I was given strict limits and regulations concerning the times and days during the week that I was allowed to come and share the Word of God. Recently, as I held a meeting with one of the top prison officials, I asked him about how the work was going, if he had any suggestions, critiques, etc., and he told me that it is now possible to come and teach the Word of God at any day during the week at any time! This is truly exciting, as we are now able to really expand upon the ministries and to take full advantage of the opportunity that the Lord has given us to be used even more in His service there. We have now extended an extra day during our week and are looking into even more expansion. We have formed three brand new groups on the extra day that we have allotted, and it is truly exciting. Praise the Lord for His work there, and for allowing us this wonderful opportunity to be used in His service and work.

We had an exciting first couple of weeks this past month, as we shared the good news with two brand new groups of prisoners. We used the evangelism program that I taught in our church called "Sharing Jesus Without Fear." At the invitation between both groups, we saw twenty-five men place their faith in Christ as Savior! Many of those that made that decision for Christ have been asking for additional materials, and also for other helps to assist them in their spiritual walk. I have so many thoughts concerning even further teaching and training that I would like to implement in the near future, so please pray that God would direct and guide me as there is still much work to be done for His glory there.

One of the ministries that I really enjoy as well is teaching in the Bible school here in Kitale. This past term was really challenging to me, as I was able to teach further Bible doctrines, as well as challenge the students with the teachings that were presented. It is exciting for me, as I see the future leaders of the church wanting to grow so much in their faith and walk with God. It is one of my goals to challenge and stretch the students to think critically, yet it seems like every term in the school the students challenge me even more, and are also such a blessing to me. Please pray for each of these students as they are now doing their projects, and have been facing challenging exams. Also, pray that each of them would be able to grow in their knowledge of the Scriptures, and that we would truly be a challenge and blessing to them from the Scriptures.

That is all the current news from Kitale. Please keep me in your prayers, and as always, thank you so much for your letters, emails, and other encouragement that you have given me since I have been here in Kitale. God bless you, and may we ever serve Him this coming year more faithfully than ever before.

Because of Him,

Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

February 6, 2004

I have now been in Brazil for five days. It was a 12 hour flight in New York when I boarded the plane. It was 90 degrees when I stepped off the plane here on Sunday morning in Cuiaba. I was well received and we had a great service at the Altos do Coxipo church that night.

Yesterday I made the dangerous trip to Novo Diamantino. I got back at three o'clock this morning with both front rims of my car all bent out of shape. Thankfully I didn't burst a tire. The work there is very stable under the leadership of Brother Edvan. We pray that he will work out for a long time. His family has adapted well there it seems and the people seem to really respect him. I already have a marriage to perform on the 27th and another one is in the works. I must do a lot of work to get our house fixed up these next few weeks. It's in a mess. That should take some of the excess pounds off in a hurry! I will write more next time. Please note my e-mail address above. My temporary phone number here in Brazil is 011-55-65-627-4344. Next month I should have my permanent number. God bless all of you. Pray for me as I plan this year's work here in Brazil. My main business is preaching and teaching the Word, loving sinners and saints and trusting and obeying the Master. That's a big job for such a worm as I.

Yours in Christ,
Harold Draper

Sunday morning and night we attended and I preached at Faith Baptist Church, Marion Oaks, where Randy Miller is the pastor and our son, Stephen, is the Associate Pastor.

Sunday afternoon, the 18th, Stephen took us to Leona Barnes's home in Brooksville FL, where that night I preached at the First Baptist Church of Lacoochee. Eldridge Parrish is the pastor. Leona, whom I baptized at Newby when she was 16, obtained the invitation for me to preach there where she is a faithful member.

The following afternoon, after we spent Sunday night in her home, the music director and his wife drove us to the motel in Winter Garden. From the motel, Brother Bobby and Sister Betty Creiglow took us to the Park Ridge Baptist Church where Danny King is the pastor. We attended the BFM Winter Conference on Monday and Tuesday, and I preached twice.

On Wednesday morning at 6:00, we left the motel in a rented car with our Son, Asa Mark Bratcher, pastor of Communion Baptist Church in Manaus, Brasil. Sixteen hours later, we arrived back in Lexington.

Saturday around noon, we left Lexington with Asa Mark and we drove to Morganfield and checked into a motel. A few hours later, Pastor Jim Adams and his wife took us to a nearby restaurant for supper. Brother Adams is the pastor of Calvary of Uniontown where Asa was to preach the next morning. The services were cancelled due to the ice storm making the roads slick.

The next morning we left and drove back to Lexington after visiting two dear sisters in the Lord, Mrs. Nannie Edith Richardson and Mrs. Ella J. Casey in Richmond.

Asa Mark left us on Wednesday morning, the 28th. He drove to Jacksonville FL, where he is attending the Pastor's Conference at First Baptist. He, the Lord willing, will arrive back in Manaus next Thursday. "So teach us (Lord) to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom" Psalm 90.12.

We thank all of you who contribute and/or pray for us as missionaries, for these 44 years of Baptist Faith Missions service.

Permit us to mention three givers: Billy and Barbara Stone of Richmond KY and "From a Friend" of Lexington. We appreciate ALL who give.

Thus, we have "numbered our days" and we trust have "redeemed the time, because the days are evil" Ephesians 5.16.

We are praying for more invitations to preach in the churches here in the USA. Yes, our "youthful days are gone and old age" has overtaken us, but we, with God as our Helper, are still carrying on. "God be with you till we meet again."

Yours in the service of the Savior,
Harold and Marie Bratcher

Brother Creiglow's Report . . .

Dear Brethren:

January 31, 2004

Every year since our return from the mission field Betty and I have attended the Winter Missions Conference hosted by Park Ridge Baptist Church in Gotha, Florida where Danny King is pastor, and this year was no exception. While in Florida we also attended Faith Baptist Church where William Carr is pastor, and also South Side in Winter Haven where we had been members before moving to Kentucky; Bob Lamb is now pastor of this church. Any time we are in Florida we stay with our good friends, Grant and Pat Epps.

Brother Dave Parks and I will be going Kenya on February 17 to visit our missionaries and their work there. For the past several years we have planned this trip, but something always came up that we had to postpone it. Our reservations are now made, so it looks like we will go this time. My sister Sally in Ohio will come to stay with Betty while I am gone.

I still have video tapes of the work of Baptist Faith Missions that I would be happy to mail to any that request them, and there is no charge for them. Also, if your church has any project that needs videos made, I would be happy to come to your church to film your project and then edit it to the best of my ability.

My next report should be about our trip to Kenya.

In His Name,
Bobby D. Creiglow

Pam's Expanding Medical Ministry ... Helper In Accident ... Frustrating Red Tape ...

Dear Friends,

February 4, 2004

We have started off in this new year with great anticipation. There is still much to do for the Lord here, and we thank the Lord for those who have a willingness to work for the Lord.

Pam has stated a new phase of her medical ministry. She is now the health nurse for an orphanage in Kitale. The ministry is called Seed of Hope. The people care for forty-four young people, from infants to early teens. These children have lost their parents, due primarily to Aids, and many have been abandoned at birth. Pam will have the opportunity every Wednesday to go in and help these precious children with much needed health care. Pam is also training their workers to care and teach the children in personal hygiene. She wants to use this experience in helping them so she can learn how to operate an orphanage, so that, Lord willing, we can expand our own orphanage in the future.

We are continuing our ministries in our churches after a break for Christmas. Our evangelism program, and also our adult Bible studies in homes on Friday night have started again. Andrea, the newest member of our team, will be working with our Word of Life Youth Clubs which meet every Saturday. Andrea has been busy trying to get her nurses registration from the Kenyan government. Last month, she went into the nursing office in Nairobi and had an interview with the nursing board. Andrea found out that she has to work almost six months in a government hospital in Nairobi as part of the requirements for the government to approve her nursing registration. If you will remember, Pam had to do almost five months in government clinics and a hospital before they would approve her. Also, Andrea has been approved by the Children's Officer in Kitale to have a street children's ministry in Kenya. Andrea is very excited about reaching neglected children, many of whom live on the streets of Kitale, with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Yesterday, she taught forty-three street children in one of her first meetings with them, and we are excited about this new aspect of the Lord's work here.

One other thing that I might add concerning Andrea is that while she was in Nairobi, she was able to purchase a used car. Unfortunately, on her first trip with the car, she had an accident coming back up to Kitale. She was able to leave a message on my mobile phone concerning the problem. By this time, it was dark, so I and some friends went looking for her. We drove over an hour before we found her. Andrea and a Kenyan friend were able to get the car towed to the Eldoret police station. Eldoret is the nearest city to us, and is over an hour away from Kitale. It was so good getting to see Andrea, and we were so glad that she and her friend were not hurt. We were also thankful that the guy who hit her had insurance, and he is going to pay for the damage. We did not get back home until 1:00 in the morning. We thank the Lord that He gave us safe passage in our rescue of Andrea, as it is even more difficult to drive at night with unlit roads, pot holes, and bright lights shining in our eyes. The Lord has really given us a good guardian angel as we travel the bad roads of Kenya.

This month has been very frustrating for us. We finally were able to get our new 'used' car shipped in from Japan. We do this because we need a car with right hand steering, and also the cars that come directly from Japan have not been abused by the Kenyan roads. The problem is that we have not been able to get the car through Kenyan customs yet. Our agent has tried diligently to meet all the many requirements to try to get our car in tax-free, but the tax department keeps delaying the process. If we were to pay the tax, we would have to pay 80% of the value of the car! We just cannot afford to pay that much money for a car. The frustrating thing is that they had already approved us, then we had to get another car. Instead of making the changes on the document, they made us start all over again. Then, they made more requirements, and the process has taken over a month to complete. During this time, the port in Mombassa, where the car is stored, is charging us daily storage charges! So it seems, we can't win for losing! Please pray that the Lord would work in the hearts of these officials, so that they would not charge us the high import charges, and that they would waive the charges for storage at the port, since it is their fault for all the delays.

Nathan continues to be a blessing. He has really been a good missionary, and a big assist to us. He stays busy learning the Swahili language. The Lord has blessed his efforts, because he is already on the fluency level. He has been doing his discipleship Bible lessons in his prison ministry in Swahili.

All of us here are looking forward to seeing two of our BFM Directors who are planning to come out in February for a visit. Please pray for Brother Dave Parks and Brother Bobby Creiglow as they fly to Kenya. We are also looking forward to Randy and Barb Jones, and their Missions Adventure Team coming out to see us in June.

Thank you again for all your financial support and prayers. We are so thankful for all who make it possible so that we can reach the people of Kenya with the best news!

May God's richest blessings be yours in this new year, as you labor for Him in your part of His harvest field.

Your servants in Kenya,
Mike and Pam

Return To States Because Of Visa Problems ... Visitors From States A Blessing ...

Everyone,

February 5, 2004

Well we have had an AWESOME year here in Brazil. We have found the place where we feel we are to serve God and have begun many things for the Lord. I guess two of the best things that we have done this year are the two training classes that we have been a part of here in the Church. We have had outside speakers come in and give classes in the Sunday School areas and in the areas of discipleship. In this area we have had many interested in learning how to disciple and for this we are grateful, but we need more to have the same interest. There are more people coming to the Lord than we have persons to disciple them.

But you know that when there are good stories to be told there is also the down side. Our down side is this; we are back in the States at this moment because after five years trying to get the paper work done for our permanent visa, the Brazilian government has decided that we should just come home to the States and begin again. You see there have been so many mistakes made in our process that the only alternative that we have is to begin again like we have never been in Brazil. So we arrived here in the States on the 12th of January and on the 14th we were in the Brazilian Embassy in Washington presenting our new paperwork. They told us that it seemed that we had all of the necessary paperwork and for us to go back to Kentucky and wait for their decision. They said that it would take about one month. Pray for this process to be approved rapidly and for our work there in Brazil to progress in our absence.

The week before we left Brazil we were blessed to have a group from the Cornerstone Baptist Church on Winchester Road here in Lexington come to visit with us. They came with ministry in mind and we did not disappoint them. Their pastor got to preach every night except one, their quartet got to sing each time that their pastor preached, and during the day when they weren't preaching they built ten new church pews. Thanks to all of the churches that sent money for this project.

Pastor Foy had e-mailed and asked what they could do for the Church on their visit and we told him about the need for more pews. He then called or wrote to some of our supporting Churches and they sent money for the materials for the pews and so the pews are in place. Again, THANKS, because without you this would not have been possible. Our seating problems are resolved for the time being. My prayer is this, that this problem re-occurs rapidly.

Also on this visit the ladies helped with the pews, but what they did that was so great was the painting of murals in one of our Sunday School class rooms and at one of our mission points. All of the children are now wanting Bible characters on their walls. So our Church, our pastor, Epitacio and myself and all of our members want to say thanks to this group for all their hard work.

This just goes to show how the two classes have been put to good use in our Church and how God is adding to our Church daily. Now the new members that are attending Church have a place to sit.

I have just talked to one of our mission pastors and he reported that this past week there were seven people saved on visitation and seven people reunited with our Church. He also said that the building was full and the pews were put to good use. Isn't it wonderful to know that God does not need us to do his work but that He uses us to the fullest.

After we turned our paperwork in there in Washington we went down to Virginia Beach where we have a supporting Church. The Atlantic Shores Baptist Church there visits us every other year with a group of youth and they are always a blessing to us. We spent several days there with them and had the opportunity to thank Pastors Jim, Rob, Paul and Jerry for their faithful support.

As we are only planning to be here until the 13th of Feb., we apologize for not being able to see everyone or to speak personally to your Church. But maybe when we come in for more time and without any pressing business we can see you and you can hear personally what your mission giving is doing in Caraguatatuba, Brazil.

What we want to do is THANK everyone for supporting us with your prayers and your contributions throughout the past year. And also to ask you to continue praying and giving so we can be fruitful in the Lords work.

In His service, A. J. and Barbara
