Team Coming To Build A Building . . . Thankful For Faithful Workers . . .

Dear Friends,

The construction project here in Huanuco is for the Central Baptist Church. We are anxiously waiting for the arrival of the mission project team from Berea Baptist Church of Hiddenite, North Carolina. Pastor Charles Cook is their pastor and he will be accompanying the group the 12-26 of July. They have raised funds to help with the construction and are coming to help build. Praise the Lord! The saints here in Huanuco are all excited about their coming. It is such a help and blessing when churches take on projects like this. We are always thankful for those that are willing to come and help; but it is such an extra blessing when they raise the funds for the building materials. I will write more next month about their trip.

Our mission work in Challana hosted a revival meeting this month and had good attendance and several professions of faith. The work in Huariaca is doing very well. They are growing steadily. It seems our young pastor there, Jonel Quijano, and his wife, Yudy, are finally getting accustomed to the high altitude there. They are both originally from the jungle region of Peru. Up even higher is the work in Chasqui. The work is struggling and needs our prayers. The Hualar work, on the Pacific coast, north of Lima, is doing well. They have started preaching in two new areas with possibilities of these becoming permanent mission points.

On the 9th of July, I will be performing the wedding ceremony for one of our young preachers, Vladimir Espinoza, and his fiancée, Mariana Silva. Vlado is pastoring a mission in Lima and doing a good job. I am sure you will be hearing more about God's blessing on his ministry in the future. The work of the Lord continues growing in Peru. Anita and I thank the Lord for all of you, your prayers and support. Until next month.

Church Celebrates Anniversary . . . Looking To The Future . . .

Dear Brethren,

May 25, 2004

Greetings from Cruzeiro do Sul, home of the oldest Baptist Church in the state of Acre and all of western Brazil.

On May 12th, First Baptist Church of Cruzeiro do Sul, celebrated her 75th anniversary. We held a five day meeting to celebrate the occasion. Each night one of the pastors spoke. I closed the meeting on Sunday night, challenging the church for the future. The building was totally packed with dozens standing.

Seventy-five years ago, Brother Joseph F. Brandon organized the church with 15 members. The city of Cruzeiro do Sul was just 25 years old. The first year was a huge challenge. Four of the members had to be excluded, two moved to Manaus and five died. Only four of the charter members were still around a year later. Even so, she survived and is still FIRST.

Each night of the meeting we showed a video presentation of the church's history.

We also had a 180 lb. cake in the shape of our church building. Cake and other goodies were served to everyone each night. Sister Nazare helped me cut the cake. She is one of our oldest members, (94 years old) and had helped me cut the cake on our 50th anniversary.

This time we didn't do any advertising because our main drive was to challenge the church for her mission with the coming of Christ. Nevertheless, we had huge crowds. They didn't come because of the cake, either. They didn't even know there would be one.

On Sunday morning I baptized 24 more new members. After the baptism, we had the Lord's Supper. There were two more people saved.

My challenge to the church included a long list of those things that First Baptist Church has been FIRST. Then after a brief exposition of the church's commission and functions, I made it clear that we cannot be content and rest on victories, glories, of the past and present. We must conquer our city, state, country and all the world for the Kingdom of Christ. Even as I write this letter, I am 300 miles up the Jurua River with a team of eleven workers preaching the gospel. Two days ago, before my team arrived, I was deep in the jungles on the Peruvian side taking the gospel to the Asheninka Indians at the very last village on the Jurua River.

First Baptist Church continues to be just that - FIRST. God bless all of you as much as he has blessed us.

In Christ,
Mike Creiglow

MISSION ADVENTURES TO AFRICA

By Jim Orrick

From June 23rd to July 4th, I was privileged to journey to Africa with MISSION ADVENTURES to help build a church building for missionaries Mike and Pam Anderson and to see some of the sights. MISSION ADVENTURES is a burden and calling that God has placed on the hearts of two of our members, Randy and Barbara Jones, to take groups to the mission fields to better acquaint people with our mission work and, hopefully, give them a greater burden for missions in general. This was their third such trip and my first to go with them.

Our place of departure was Charleston, West Virginia, where we met up with the other seven members of the team. We were from four different churches. I was the oldest member of the team, and the youngest was sixteen-year-old Amy from Bancroft, West Virginia. Although we did not all know each other, this would change on the trip and we would become a very close-knit group.

From Charleston, we flew to Dulles International Airport in Washington, D. C. where we had about a six-hour lay over. We were so full of excitement the time seemed to pass quickly and about 10:00 p.m. we lifted off for Kenya, East Africa. As a boy seeing Tarzan movies, I dreamed of one day visiting the "Dark Continent," and now I was on my way.

After an all night flight aboard a British Airways plane, we arrived in London where we were to have about a ten-hour lay over. This time was not wasted, and we were soon aboard the tube (Subway) and headed into the city to see some of the sights.

Our first stop was the world famous British Museum. A person could spend days there, but because of our limited time, we were there only about two hours, spending most of our time viewing some of the artifacts of ancient Egypt and Greece. We also saw the famous Rosetta stone, which was the key to unlocking the ancient Egyptian language. We also saw the statue of Venus as well as many other interesting things. From there we walked to Buckingham Palace. We also saw London's famous clock, Big Ben, and Westminster Abbey where some of Britain's famous people, including the great African missionary, David Livingstone, are buried. Because of the long lines and our limited time, we did not go inside. We went to the River Thames, where we had a group picture taken with London's famous London Bridge in the background. All of this walking was getting to the old man of the group, and so Randy carried my back pack a good bit of the time.

By now it was time to go back to the airport and board another overnight flight that would take us to Kenya. I was able to sleep some of the flight, and for this I was grateful. We landed in the capital of Nairobi just after daylight, and there we had one of our few disappointments of the trip. Only nine of our nineteen pieces of luggage made it to Kenya. Thankfully, mine all arrived.

Upon leaving the airport, we were met by missionaries Mike and Pam. The girls were presented with bouquets of flowers, and after some picture taking, we were off to where we were to spend our first night in Africa. Besides Mike and Pam's land rover, there were two vehicles with national drivers to take our luggage and us to our place of lodging.

We were to spend our first night in a mission house, the Mayfield House, belonging to African Inland Missions. It was very nice and clean, and there were probably about forty missionaries with different groups who were staying there. After hours on the road, I was ready for a good hot shower. Instead, I chose to take a nice long bath, and so I filled the bathtub with hot water to the overflow pipe and just lay there for a long time. After this, and about an hour of rest time, we were off to see a giraffe park where sick giraffes are cared for. Some of them were so tame that they came up to the wall that separated us from them and stretched their long necks over so we would feed them. Wart hogs were walking around the giraffes to pick up anything they dropped.

After this it was back to the Mayfield House for dinner in their dining hall. Randy and Mike told us what time we were to meet for breakfast, and then it was off to bed. After spraying with insect repellent, I crawled under my mosquito net and soon fell to sleep. Tomorrow we would begin our long drive to Kitale.

Three To Be Baptized . . . Excited About Visitors . . .

Dear Friends,

July 3, 2004

Next Sunday I will have the privilege of baptizing three new members into our church. The extra joy that their decision brings me is that we have worked and shared the Word of God with them for several years and, after much thought and careful consideration, they are now ready to commit their lives to Christ. They have considered the cost of discipleship and also the benefits of following Christ and they consciously submit to His leadership in their lives. We are happy for their new found faith and are looking forward to the growth and service that will flow from their walk in obedience to God.

In the month of July we will focus on "open air evangelism." There is a group from Highview Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky arriving on July 9th and will aid us in many different aspects of public evangelism. Our Project Life team will be working in conjunction with this group. We are praying that God will bring about a great harvest of souls turning to Christ.

Last night at one of our leadership training sessions we rejoiced to see God perform a true work of grace in several persons. One man had become discouraged as a result of several setbacks in his personal life. He was near the point of giving up the pursuit of ministry training, but we saw God's power in operation as the man transformed from a discouraged near-quitter to a motivated soldier of faith. Another lady's experience was practically the opposite end of the spectrum. Several years ago she was awarded a scholarship to study computer science. Those who do well in that field of study have a wide variety of career and financial opportunities open up to them. This lady is doing very well in her final year in computing studies and those opportunities are beginning to appear. We rejoice because she understands that God provided her with the scholarship program and she is determined to use the talents and abilities that she has acquired for His service and pleasure and not for personal advancement.

I will have the tremendous joy of working side-by-side with my daughter, Jessie, this coming week. The group which is coming from the States to help in evangelism does not speak Portuguese and we will need to translate their presentations of the gospel. Jessie is thrilled, as am I, that she'll be able to serve as interpreter when some of the young people share their testimonies of personal faith in Christ. I can't think of any thrill greater than to see my own children joyfully serve God with their lives and abilities. I pray that this will be one of many other experiences of her serving the Lord.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support. God does richly bless.

In Christ's love,

Bobby, Charlene, Jessie and Brennen Wacaser

Nathan's Report . . .

Dear praying friends,

July 3, 2004

Another month has come and gone and there are many things to give you an update about. This letter will discuss current needs, the work in Africa during my absence, and also prayer requests.

Thank you so much for those who have prayed about the team that went to Kenya for the past ten days. This team was composed of people from four different churches. Their main ministry was to assist with constructing a church building for my parents. Not only did they do this successfully, but they were also able to visit and see many of the ministries that are currently in process. They were able to go to the prison ministry and give each prisoner some toiletries and a copy of the gospel of John and Romans in Swahili. This was a large project, as there are around 1,000 men prisoners. I am confident that lives were changed during this trip and that those who went will forever be changed as a result of it. Please pray that God would even call more workers to His harvest in Kenya because of this wonderful experience.

I have been very busy contacting churches and also having meetings with individuals. This has been a time of trusting the Lord like no other time in my life.

We are taking a year-long furlough for the marital adjustments that will need to take place, as the first year of marriage is a major adjustment. Please pray for both of us as we approach this exciting time in our lives. One verse I have claimed is 2 Timothy 2:13 which says "If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself." What a tremendous verse from the Word of God.

In closing, there are several prayer requests. First, please pray for the many ministries continuing in my absence. I am getting great reports about the prison ministry, as the Kenyan I left in charge has already trained 40 other prisoners through Walk through the Bible. Praise the Lord! I am happy for the other ministries, namely the evangelism and discipleship ministry, and also the Bible school. Please also pray for Carrie, as she has started a new job in Pennsylvania which is close to her family. This will allow her adjustment time with her family before leaving for the field next year, Lord willing. This is a very important time for her, so please pray for her. Also, please pray as she is preparing for our wedding in October.

Please also pray that God would burden others to support this work in Kenya. It is God's work, not mine, and He must burden those who would want to become a part of it. Please pray that I would have more faith as well and learn to be patient at times. God bless you and thank you so much for your interest in Kitale, Kenya.

Second Letter From Mike Creiglow . . .

Dear Brethren,

June 1, 2004

Greetings from Brazil, just barely. One hundred yards from where I sit is the Breu River, which separates us from Peru.

Last week I left Cruzeiro do Sul in a brand new boat that Andrew and I made. The motor is my old 15HP outboard. My first stop was to be Thaumaturgo. I should have arrived in 8 1/2 to 9 hours. My motor broke down twice though, so I did not arrive until 9 p.m. It was cold, misty and the river is low. Believe me, under these conditions, all by your lonesome and not knowing when the motor is going to give up, is not the most fun thing I can imagine doing.

The next day, I worked on the motor again. Then I took off for Foz do Breu (Peruvian border) taking along our missionary to Thaumaturgo, Emerson and his wife, Flavia, to be part of our team for the upcoming medical mission trip.

At the border I left my boat and picked up a dugout canoe and our missionary Aesio, to go on to Peru. We took along a Peruvian policeman from their border station as security. This guy kept his machine gun strapped on at all times. There are some Jaminas Indians along the way who are at times not the friendliest people in the world.

It took us about six hours to Dulce Gloria, the last settlement on the Jurua River. Not a soul lives beyond this village except maybe an untouched tribe. The tribe and village we visited are the Asheninkas. These are the ones who paddled five days down stream to invite me to go visit them. Twenty-two of these Indians had trusted Christ after hearing the gospel from a Peruvian who had been to Pucallpa. He had heard the gospel there, and after coming home to Tipisca on the Jurua River, he went on a trip to Dulce Gloria. There he shared the gospel with the Indians.

I baptized three of these back in February when fourteen came to implore my help to start a church at Dulce Gloria.

The village is 100% Asheninka Indians. There are about 300 of them. They treated us royally and fed us well. Over 80 of them attended the first service. During this service, I presented them with a brand new guitar and case that First Baptist Church sent to them. The Indians' old guitar had more tape patches than the guitar itself! It is hard to preach when you don't know whether the people even understand the words. Only a few of the Indians speak basic Spanish and a little Portuguese. So even my interpreters were not pros. My confidence is in the Holy Spirit who can and does interpret for me.

On Sunday morning there were well over 100 present for the service. Besides the message, they insisted that I sing a hymn. Of all the times in my life I have been a freak, this took the cake. Imagine if you can, this "thing" different from every possible way. Me singing to these Indians, a totally strange kind of song, in an unknown tongue, about an unknown God. Oh, the limitless grace of God!

After the services we had pow-wow with the leaders, to discuss how to get the gospel to the rest of the village and to the other villages on a tributary. The Huacapisteh River comes out right at Dulce Gloria. There are four more villages of Asheninkas up this river.

Three more of the original group of believers asked for baptism as I was getting ready to leave. I quizzed them through 2 of the men, to be sure of their faith in Christ. I baptized them, as I was, in my jeans, ready to travel. Most of the village was present at the river bank for this great service.

I am very excited about this wide open door to extreme foreign missions. From way back when I was a young, single preacher, taking the message of Christ all the way to the border, I had the desire to know about the upper Jurua and the Huacapisteh Indians. For 38 years my adventurous spirit begged to cross over, but without the means to preach to the Indians. I just kept dreaming. Now God has made the dream come true.

This letter is getting pretty long, so it is time to close.

Almost, but not quite. Now and then I have needs to share with you. Usually it is one thing that I ask you to help me acquire. For the first time ever though I have a shopping list! Please be patient and prayerful.

Remember the motor that broke down on my way up river? I am still up river and praying it will get me home. It definitely needs to be replaced. The new motor will be a 20HP 4 stroke. I have already put down $600, but still need $2,300.00 to pay it off.

In November I will be visiting the tribe again and plan to take a small tail motor for them to use on their mission trips. They have agreed to make the canoe. The motor will cost $600.00.

Andrew and I built our boat and I put down $600.00 toward the new motor. The Indians will make their own canoe. Help us purchase the motors. Send and mark a special offering for Mike Creiglow's "motor fund". Help us buy the equipment and I will use it and wear it out to expand the Kingdom of Christ. Thanks so much and may God bless you very, very much.

In Christ, Mike Creiglow

Back In Brazil ... Churches And Missions Doing Well ... Special Prayer Request ...

Dear Fellow-saints,

June 30, 2004

We have now been back in Brazil for over a month. As you know, I came in January to find us a place to live and went back the end of March to get Ursula. The first two weeks back here we had wonderful weather. It was not too hot and stayed cloudy a lot. For the past two, it has been rough with smoke, dust, and heat. I came down with bronchial pneumonia and high blood pressure problems. I have been limited to only going out at night or early since I am on strong medicine. I've lost a few pounds which I needed to do, but it's a tough way to do it! In spite of all this the Lord is blessing and we have much to rejoice about. Our daughter Michelle, who we left behind for the first time seems to be making the adjustment well. She is on summer vacation from school but is working. For the first time in over forty years, we are just us two now. That gives mixed emotions. We have plenty of our Brazilian friends to fill the time and space. Not the same as family, but they are precious too.

Our work here in Mato Grosso continues to grow with all the challenges and blessings that come with doing the Lord's work in this wicked world. The missions at Jardim Fortaleza and Primavera have really grown, not just in number but in the Lord. We can see that they will be ready to organize in the not too distant future. The works in Varzea Grande are going well, but at a slower pace. The St. Marys work continues to be slow, but has great promise for the future as the population grows around it. It is down on the river bank in a rural area. The 7th of May work is going well and has thousands of people who live around it. Pastor Jairo and the Faith Baptist Church take care of these two works with our help. The work at Novo Diamantino is growing right now, but not without difficulties. We just found out last week that one of the leading men of the church (not the pastor) who has helped out a lot in the past year has been acting in an improper manner with two young girls who are from two families of the church. He confessed it when confronted, was not repentant, wanted to continue to work in the church as nothing had happened, but we had to remove him from leadership. He has quit coming to the church. Evidently he has not done any bad damage with the two children, but admitted that he has had incidents in the past. His name is Mario. Pray for him. He has grown children and grandchildren.

We continue to marvel at the faith and strength of Pastor Joao Candido of the Boa Esperanca church. The doctors gave him six months to live with pancreatic cancer. He has already lived twenty-two months. He preaches every Sunday. It looks like the Lord could soon call him home. He is very weak. He is only 45 years old. Bro. Luis Antonio of the same church is now in Sao Paulo taking Chemo therapy. His colon cancer has spread to his liver and left lung. Sister Teresa, the wife of Pastor Miqueas of our church at Chacara dos Pinheiros, has been gone for 100 days to Sao Paulo with cancer in her right jaw bone. She is now taking radiation treatments and seems to be doing well. Time will tell if the Lord will use the doctors to totally cure her or not. I hate to give all this "bad" news, but it is a heavy burden on us here and we want all of you to pray for these dear people. The way I have been feeling these days makes me realize that this heat in Cuiaba is taking its toll on both of us. We are working hard to help three of our young preachers to study and be able to live in their remote communities. They are trying to get an education to be school teachers so they can be financially independent. Right now we are helping them stay on the field and helping them to go to school with the help of the As Needed Offering that come in. Help us to be able to maintain this. It will take about two years to get them on track the way it looks right now. God bless all of you there.

Brother Creiglow's Report ...

Dear Brethren:

July 2, 2004

This month I have had requests from several churches that have asked for information about the work of Baptist Faith Missions. I have mailed videos along with other materials to them with the hope that it will bring in more support for our missionaries.

Also this month I have had the privilege of working with Evangelists Bob and Sue Jones, producing a video of their work in India. If you are interested in their video, please contact Brother Jones.

While Brother Bobby Lakes and his wife were on vacation, I had the honor of supply preaching for him and Faith Baptist Church in Versailles, Kentucky. The following weekend we were with the Bible Baptist Church and Pastor Art Donley in Harrisburg, Illinois.

Betty has felt some better these past two weeks, and I am doing just fine. We are still trying to serve our Lord here in our home church, First Baptist of Science Hill, Kentucky. If we can be of any service to you or your church please call on us.

In His Name, Bobby D. Creiglow

Mission Adventures Team Visits ... Builds Church Building ... See Other Ministries ...

Dear Special Friends,

July 4, 2004

Greetings from Nairobi Kenya. The team from Mission Adventures just left yesterday. They were such a blessing. We came into Nairobi to see them off and for them to buy souvenirs of their trip here and to see some of the sights. It was a great trip, and we deeply appreciate all of the hard work of Randy and Barbara Jones, who were the leaders of the team. Barbara is Pam's sister, and she and Randy worked so hard preparing for this trip as well as doing an excellent job of coordinating everything. Along these lines, we also want to thank so many of you who helped Pastor Greg Smith, Mandy Hesson, Olivia Pagan, Chris and Sherry Price, Amie Shamblin, Rich Smith, and Pastor Jim Orrick to come. Your financial assistance and prayers were such a tremendous help. We thank you for your involvement so that they could come. They were a blessing to us and our people here. The weather was perfect everyday; this, too, was an answer to prayer, because now is the time of rainy season here. We know that many of you were praying, and God richly blessed.

The team was very busy during their visit, and we hope that many of you will visit the BFM Mission Adventures web site at: www.bfmma.org, so that you can see the pictures that have been posted of their trip here with us. They helped us to build our second church, and it is almost completed, except for the roof. Unfortunately, several of the team members were sick for one day, or we know that the job would have been completed. But, our people met in the new church for the first time today, and all were pleased with the new building. The team worked on the new building with some of our members from Imani Baptist. Several members of the team expressed their enjoyment at having the opportunity to work with our people, people from a different culture and language.

During their time with us, they were able to attend Sunday School at Imani Baptist, and Sherry and Olivia taught the younger kids in Sunday School, while Rich Smith taught the adults. Pastors Jim Orrick and Greg Smith each preached a short sermon at Calvary. Also, each member of the team went with a member of our evangelism team, and were able to observe our members witnessing to the lost, as we do each Sunday here. The team members saw some receive Christ as their personal Savior. Many of the team told us of the blessing that they received from watching our people put their faith into action.

During the week, they saw the ministry with street children that Andrea is doing, and the ministry that Nathan has in the prison here. Chris Price from the team gave a challenge to the prisoners, and did an excellent job. Barbara, Mandy, and Amie went with Pam in the helicopter for a day into the bush where a medical clinic was done. On the way back to Nairobi, we took the team to a game park where they saw rhinos, zebras, wart hogs, giraffes, wildebeests, impalas, many kinds of birds, and many other animals. So, it was a very full eight days, and we enjoyed each of them so much. The biggest blessing for us was to watch our Lord at work in their lives as they gave themselves to Him. Thanks to each of you for your prayers and support for the team, and thank you, Pastors Jim and Greg, Mandy, Amie, Chris, Sherry, Olivia, Rich, Randy, and Barbara for being a blessing to us and to the people that we love here. We would encourage many of you to contact Randy and Barb so that you can go on the next Mission Adventures trip to Brazil next year, Lord willing.

So, now we must return to Kitale to begin the task of preparing for furlough. Lord willing, we will arrive in the States later this month, and after doing a video of the ministry here, we will be ready to visit churches. Several pastors have already contacted us, so if you would like for us to come to visit your church, and share our burden for the Lord's work here, please contact us soon. There are some burdens that we have for the ministry here that we would love to share with you.

Thanks again for your prayers and interest in what God is doing in this part of the world. We look forward to seeing many of you while we are in the States for five months. May our Lord richly bless you and your labors for Him there.

Your servants in Kenya, Mike and Pam

Buildings Going Up ... To Open Ten New Missions ...

Dear Friends,

June 30, 2004

Working and waiting is a good way to describe this month. Mission teams are ready and sharing the gospel as we wait for buildings to be ready for meeting. We are working on two buildings and hope to complete them next week. One is at Zumbi dos Palmares 2 and the second at Japiimlandia. These buildings are getting the final touches, as stage, chairs and sound system are being installed.

We are scheduled to start ten missions as follows:

July 10th	Nova Jerusalem and Japiimlandia
July 17	Zumbi dos Palmares and Santa Etelvina
July 24th	Riacho Doce and Centre
July 31st	Coroado 3 and Francisca Mendes
August 7th	Bairro Novo and Cidade Nova Nucleo 5

We are using tents in some of the locations in order to keep down the cost and get the teams on the field. Each location will need a building soon. Part of the team is sewing tents at night between visitation and follow-up. We are sure God will provide the means to get all these places under roof. God raised the reapers; we are equally dependent on him for the buildings.

The mission at Coroado 2 is having two Saturday night evangelistic services, at 7 pm and at 8:45 pm. The Lord is moving and souls are being saved. Their building is filled to capacity for the first service and two-thirds in the second service.

This weekend we are having a seminar to prepare additional teams to start new churches. We have 60 enrolled for this three-day "camp-in." Pray for these church plants. Pray for God's continued encouragement and protection for his children.

We thank you for your prayer and support.

Paul and Wanda Hatcher
