Weather Problems . . . Put Visitors To Work . . . Thanksgiving In Brazil . . .

Hello from Brazil,

December 5, 2005

How long has it been since you were unable to go to your church because the roads were impassable? Here in Caraguatuba we have had an unbelievable month of rain. This has made it impossible to get to our newest mission point for two weeks. But when it dried up we have had some good services. We have had two youngsters accept Christ as their Savior and their parents reconciled with the church. When I think about this type of situation with the roads I think of our fathers and grandfathers and the transportation they must have had. It is funny how in an era of high-tech modern transportation, we have problems getting to a place to preach.

We have enjoyed visitors from the States this month. It is always a pleasure to have friends visit us from home. We love to show them what God is doing here in Brazil and introduce them to this wonderful country.

John Greatbatch and his grandson Taylor were with us for a week. We thoroughly enjoyed their presence and John was a great help in organizing the tools for the Vocational School's carpentry shop. All the machines are functioning, some not at their peak but we are getting there. I am still looking for one more machine to complete the carpentry shop. This past week we have made and installed our gate for the property. Here it is necessary to have walls and gates on your property for security of the equipment.

While John was here we were able to make some of the benches needed for our different works. These were used in the mission point at Bahanco Alto. Hopefully this upcoming month we will be able to make two pulpits and some more needed benches.

We serve a small breakfast for the children on Sunday mornings. For some it may be all they get that day.

Our project for this month for the Vocational School is to fabricate 5000 blocks for the construction of the new church building for the work in Olareia.

We began the work of fabricating these blocks last week and as of today we have made a grand total of six blocks. No that is not a typing error. Due to several break downs and wrong material being delivered, we are behind in production. But that is not a new thing here for us, because when you are trying to do what God has for you to do, Satan is hard at work trying to throw a cog in the wheel. We have had two breakdowns and the motor for the block making machine burned out, but we are back up and ready to start again tomorrow. Pray that we can get under way without more delays. This block making machine will play an intricate part in the Vocational School and will be an asset to the building of the mission points.

Although Brazil does not celebrate Thanksgiving, Barbara and I celebrated and had an awesome meal. She worked really hard on the meal to make it as much like the meal in the States as possible; however, here the turkeys are about the size of a chicken. But we enjoyed the day and the food. We had twelve people over to celebrate with us and that always makes things more enjoyable, to share it with others.

Another couple from our Church just got married this week. It seems as though when things start they come in groups. This is the third in about a month and a half. We were a part of the ceremony and the wedding was lovely. The sad part of this is that the couple will be moving to another city and they both were great workers in the church. But when God moves His people He always sends someone to fill the void.

We are looking forward to having our daughter Mary Katherine with us for the Holidays. She will get to be here for Christmas and for the New Year also. As you can well imagine this will make a father really happy—not to mention a mother also. While most of you are looking forward to a white Christmas we will have a warm one. It is a drastic change for a person from Kentucky to not have cold weather and snow for Christmas. But when you are with family and friends no matter the weather, you can be happy. We are planning on coming home in February, so it won't be long until we will be seeing you all. Thanks for your love and concern for your missionaries on the foreign field. Always remember us in your prayers.

In His service,
AJ and Barbara Hensley

Another Letter From Michael Creiglow . . .

Dear Brethren,

December 6, 2005

Sunday was the last day of our latest AMDE trip. AMDE stands for Assistencia Medica, Dentaria e Evangelistica. I will not insult your intelligence by translating that. I will fill you in on how it works. AMDE is a joint project of First Baptist Church and the Brazilian branch of Missionary Aviation Fellowship. MAF helps us hook up with Baptist doctors and dentists who are willing to give several days of their time and service. They also help us get donations of medicine and dental supplies. First Baptist Church supplies everything else and conducts the actual projects in the field. The "everything else" is quite overwhelming. We buy about half of the medicine, all the food, fuel, boats, generators and the list goes on and on. Just on fuel we spent over $500.00.

Some of you sent us new tents for this project. Thanks. They are just what we needed.

Our team was made up of 12 people. We had two dentists from south Brazil. We had a doctor and three nurses from our own church. Our project leader is also a dentist and coordinates the medical aspects of the project. I take care of logistics and the preaching/teaching side of the trips. Besides these tasks I am also the guy who does the maintenance and repair on all the equipment before and during the trip.

This clinic was on the Moa River. We set up in three different villages. Just under 1000 people got a free doctor's visit (plus free medicine), their teeth repaired and heard the gospel.

We have 3 portable dental kits that run off of generator and compressor. I spent a good bit of my time keeping this equipment repaired and operating. We have two fold up portable dentist's chairs, too. These are homemade. One of our nurses fills prescriptions. The other 2 nurses assist the dentists with supplies and sterilizing all the hardware. They also help the doctor. That's not all they do though. They still have to find time each morning to teach dental hygiene and Bible stories to the children. This is a bigger challenge than meets the eye. They use puppets to teach the dental hygiene and basic Bible principles. Then they change into their clown outfits (makeup and all) to continue playing with the kids and teaching them while their parents are at the doctor or dentist. Then there is a full time cook and two team members that take care of staging the patients and filling out their medical records. These records are kept from year to year so we can track our progress in each village. We used 3 boats to get all of these people and supplies into the villages. We own 2 of the boats and one of the motors. We had to borrow 2 motors and a boat. The bigger boat that carries the bulk of the supplies is the one we had to borrow. Hopefully we will be able to build our own in the near future. We still have to buy the 2 motors yet, also.

All of the last paragraph was to give you an idea about how big an operation this is. It takes a lot of planning and even more will power to make everything come together. It is worth it though.

We were at the Serra do Moa for 3 days, Republica (Nukini Indian tribe) for 3 days and Sao Salvador for 2 days. The big supply boat left 3 days before the beginning of the clinic. One of our local missionaries, Rivaldo, piloted this boat and our support group for their 2 and a half day journey. They got rained on 32 times! Another of our missionaries, Hudson, took the second boat with 2 dentists and our coordinator, Zico. It took them 11 hours. I was the last to leave with a doctor and nurse. It took us 5 and a half hours in my boat. The Lord sent us enough rain that we were able to get everybody up there without incident. Then the river dried up and it was slow going from one village to the next on the way back down stream. Then on the last leg we got a big tropical storm, which brought the river back up and made it easy for us to get back to town. Most of us had some kind of rain gear, but it really didn't help much in an all day Amazon rain storm. We were thankful though, because we really needed the extra water to be able to get back to town.

There were 8 children saved during the 9 days. We held services every night with good crowds. The village people were helpful, bringing us fruit and vegetables. Our team was very close knit and there was no complaining at all. The team spirit was awesome. Every member went way beyond the call of duty to help one another.

There are a couple of things that I need you to pray about. The first is urgent. Malaria has reached epidemic proportions on the Moa River and tributaries. This is the first time in the 45 years that I have lived here that it has gone to this point. As you know, I have had malaria a number of times. The most recent was a couple of years ago. I can sleep in a tent and even if I get the illness I have access to treatment. The people along the river do not. Our government is socialistic (to put it mildly) and is doing very little about the problem. The environmental minister is even from our state, but is a tree hugger and has banned all spraying with insecticides. This lady even claims to be a Christian. At Republica, where Rivaldo lives and serves, one third of the 300 people have the disease. On the Timbauba River almost everybody is sick. The whole Moa valley is in very bad shape. It is spreading fast. All of our hospitals have been filled beyond capacity for months. Please pray!

Even though we had a doctor who is great with all tropical diseases, we could do NOTHING about the situation. We would have had to have a microscope and qualified technician along for the government to let us have medicine for malaria. Even though our doctor could identify the disease without a blood test, she is not allowed to prescribe the medication, which we couldn't have anyway! It is quite frustrating. Two villages we visited had test stations with microscopes, but only one person to take blood samples.

Then finally, pray that we will be able to build the boat and buy the motors we still need for this project. My boats, which you helped purchase, are used on these trips, but we still need the big boat to haul the team and supplies around on these big projects. We are also using a borrowed compressor. There is also a short list of smaller items that we need. One of these that Zico and I have talked, prayed and looked into is a satellite telephone. There have been a number of times that I have been stranded by myself in the jungle or along the river with no way to get help or even let my family know where I am and what is happening. Pray with us about all of these things. Later I will call on you again to help us fill these gaps.

Well you may have to read this in two or three sittings. I have no idea what the editor is going to do with this.

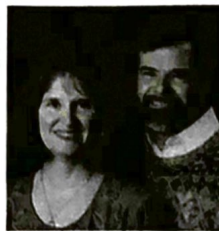

Thanks for all of you prayer and support. Please keep it up. God bless you.

In Christ,

Mike Creiglow

A Tribute To Jim Foster . . . Enjoy Thanksgiving Conference . . .

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

December 2, 2005

When I mentioned Thanksgiving in my last Mission Sheet letter, little did I know that Judy and I would have the privilege of being at the Thanksgiving Conference.

On November 7th, Jim Foster was transferred to Heaven. Judy and I were able to make it to the funeral and have spent a busy few weeks in Kentucky, Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. When I married Judy nearly 33 years ago I was blessed in becoming part of the family of people who loved the Lord and who were actively serving Him. Jim Foster served many years as a faithful deacon, first in First Baptist Church of Grayson, Kentucky, then in First Baptist Church in South Shore, Kentucky. He was a model deacon and Sunday School teacher, but was probably be remembered by nearly everyone who knew him as a person who visited the sick and needy. And, many knew him because his visits were not limited to those of his church. I was amazed by his tirelessness.

In the Fall of 1974, when I was still "wet behind the ears" as a young pastor, I was given the delightful responsibility of giving the charge to the candidate for ordination to pastor. The candidate was none other than my father-in-law Jim Foster. During the 30 years he served three churches as pastor. The fruits of his labor continue in lives of those that he touched; especially his daughter and grandchildren, and myself.

Being able to attend the Thanksgiving Conference was also a special blessing. We were able to fellowship with many that we have not seen in years. Pastor Terry Adkins and all of the wonderful folks of New Hope Baptist Church did an excellent job of making us feel welcome and at home and the preaching was excellent. We want to especially thank each one who gave to help meet the expenses of the sudden trip home. Thanks David Parks for giving up your slot on the schedule so that I could preach. During our stay in the States we have also been able to visit several churches. It was a blessing to be in Evansville briefly and see how God is blessing Emmanuel Baptist Church.

We are thankful that Judy's doctors gave her rave reviews. She has been cancer free for five years.

Meanwhile, back in France, a couple of the young believers have stepped up to the place to help in the Sunday School classes. It has been a blessing to see their rapid growth in the Lord. The lady who hosts the evangelistic Bible study of Romans in the city of Mazere wrote to say that one of the ladies who came had some questions about what we had said about the justice of God and that her heart seemed to be more open.

As you have read, we have so much for which to be thankful. This is only the tip of the iceberg. May the Lord bless you as you begin the new year.

Thankfully in Christ,
John and Judy Hatcher

Taking The Fear Out Of Death . . .

Dear Friends,

December 3, 2005

"Blessed is the one who heareth" may have more than one significance after the eighty-year mark. In our town the loud speaker truck passes through each section of town announcing special events and advertising special offers of the stores who pay for the service. The Funeral Home, also announces deaths and funerals. This week there has been one or two deaths announced each day. As I listen, I say to myself,

"I am blessed to hear the notice, I am still alive." Death, however is a terrible enemy and people ought to fear its coming.

This week I bought tires from a man who has the greatest fear of death I have seen. He can not bear to look at a corpse or even pass in front of the Funeral Home. After talking to him and hearing his fears my heart cried out to God, "Oh, Lord, Help me to reach Amil with the Gospel and please save him!" (I ask you to pray for him.) After our conversation I came home and read the accounts of Jesus raising the little girl from death, the raising of Lazarus from the tomb, the giving of life to the official's son and the restoring of life to the widow's son. Sin could not snare Jesus, Satan could not overcome and the grave could not hold Him. And I thought: For the one who has Jesus there is no fear. Great things He has done for us. To be absent from the body is to be present with Christ or growing old. He proved His love by dying for us when we were yet sinners. He has proved his power over death by His resurrection from the dead. This is our hope. Maybe you are thinking: Not much of a mission letter. Dear Friend, to take the fear out of death for the lost is our only mission. May God help us to reach as many as we can.

Without fear in HIM,
John and Alta Hatcher

B.F.M. - Our Purpose and Mission

Baptist Faith Missions assists Baptist churches to send God-called missionaries to fulfill church-planting missions in the nations of the world.

We believe that "essential Great Commission missions" is to preach the Gospel, evangelize, baptize disciples, establish Baptist churches, and train the disciples to obey everything that our Lord Jesus Christ has commanded.

While we believe that all other outreach ministries and services may accomplish good works and meet worthwhile social and spiritual needs, we believe that our purpose, scope, and focus should concentrate on essential Great Commission Gospel missions.

Lives Changed At Alpha And Omega ...

My name is Alexandre Artacho. I am 17 years old, and I have been at Alpha and Omega for 5 years. Before I came here, I was a kid that lived on the streets. There were many times I went to the streets to pick up my mom who was totally drunk. During the time I spent in the streets I went without having anything to eat or drink. I would eat anything I found that was somewhat edible. Eventually, my mom was admitted to a hospital in the city of Manlia to see if she could take care of her drinking problem. My brother and I were sent to a children's home. Not long after that, the judge decided that my brother and I should go to the Alpha and Omega home. Alpha and Omega has been a great blessing in my life. I have learned many things; most importantly I learned what was missing in my life: love, sincerity, and the love of God. It is so good to know that you are loved by such a wonderful family. This family is Pastor Odali and Kathy. I have learned many things here such as: masonry, mechanics, carpentry, I have learned to work with the animals, to cook, to bake bread, and right now I am learning about recycling. I am planning to help Alpha and Omega in any way that I can. I want to show people how wonderful it is to have a life with God. I want them to know that the life in the world is not the best, because in the world all people have to offer is drugs, drinking, and cigarettes. The world will never offer you good things. Here at the home we are offered the love of a family and especially the love of God. I want to help to take care of children and teach them these things wherever God will send me.

Alexandre Artacho

Dear Friends,

Time does not stop or wait. Seems like there is not enough time to do everything that we need to do. We are all doing great. The kids are doing great. We have seen some big changes in several kids. You can see that they are really in love with God. There is a group of them that are having Bible studies with each other. It is a real blessing to see them growing in the Lord.

We have lots of new kids. So we are doing lots of evangelism with them. Please pray for them and for us as we tell the story of God's love for them.

It seems that things run in phases. There is a group of kids that are developing the desire to help us and each other. That is always great to see. We also had one of the girls from the home get married. She married a young man who worked here at the home. It looks like that in December we may have one more wedding.

Things in the school are doing pretty good. It has been a little harder because we have several new teachers. It sometimes takes them a while to learn how to deal with kids that don't like school and don't like to study. Please pray for Kathy as she tries to keep the school with creative study. She helps with giving the teachers ideas on how to make their lessons more interesting. Keeping the kids excited about school is a real challenge. The 8th grade is planning the graduation. It is always exciting to see these kids at graduation. To see how far they have come.

Please help with getting more people to be a partner in the sponsor a child program. If you have been here you know our needs first hand. There is nothing like friends encouraging another. Pray for us as we come to the end of the year.

Love in Christ,
Odali and Kathy

Letters Getting Lost... Medical/Social Work Teams...

Dear Brethren, November 26, 2005

Seems that my letters are not getting through over the internet, so we will send this one email and snail mail. Several have asked what has happened. We are still here and doing fine, even though up to now you just had to guess about our well being! Bev is going to try to dig up some of my recent letters and send them again. It will still all be news to you. Actually some of those letters had some pretty exciting news, so we will send them again.

Here is what has been going on just in the past few weeks. Church here in town is going great. One Sunday morning we had 512 in attendance. We have been over 400 for the past months. About 6 months ago our Sunday School director moved away to south Brazil. Things had been in a slump for the last 2 or 3 years. Our attendance had dropped to an average of only 250. We took advantage of the change and reworked the whole program. Added more teachers, changed leaders and did the necessary training. We jumped over 100 in attendance right away. Our other services continue to grow slowly. We have had 3 to 5 professions of faith every week. I baptized 26 this month. My visits were to Sao Pedro out of town and Remanso and Sao Paulo chapels in town. The building was packed on a Saturday night at Sao Pedro. Edson Damasceno takes care of this congregation. We finally have property for the two missions that I mentioned here in town. We have the ground graded and foundations in for the work at Remanso. We are getting materials together for the work at Avenida Sao Paulo. They have been meeting for almost five years now, exclusively open air services. Their average attendance on Saturday night is 180 and on Tuesday night a little less. In these 5 years they have only been completely rained out once. Soon they will have a roof over their heads. Although some of our other chapels have buildings already, these two that I mentioned have the most dynamic leaders and teams. They have put together some go-getter evangelism and discipleship teams.

Our medical/social work teams have been very active. They have held meetings in four towns this year, so far. These teams cut hair, teach kids how to take a bath, teach dental hygiene, do some very basic health care and, of course, preach the gospel to all age groups and on each one level.

Our Thanksgiving dinner was a success again this year. This is our fifth year. Last year we had about 400 present for one big meal. It was too many people to be as personal as it should, so this year we split it up into 12 groups. We had at least 397. Our group had 38 and it was much more family style this time. Next year we will have this year's experience to build on, will get better organized and have the whole church involved. On Wednesday night we had a special Thanksgiving service, with a computer presentation of the origin and history of this great Christian holiday. We had a good turn out, with a number of visitors. Many of us were able to get our neighbors out on Thursday night, too. We are pleased with the progress that we are making.

Well must stop. Thanks so much for all your prayers and support. Forgive me for the long drought with no letters in the Mission Sheets. Thanks for not forgetting us. May God bless you richly.

In Christ, Mike Creiglow

Busy Training Leaders... Need Help For Larger Facilities...

Dear Friends,

December 5, 2005

Last week we concluded another round of theological studies at our Training Center. There were 21 lay leaders who completed the course and another half a dozen or so who participated but without completing the requirements. We will be giving a month long break because of the end of year activities, camp, etc., and will resume our studies again in the middle of January. Two young men of those in training came to me sharing that they sensed God's call upon them to serve in fulltime ministry. They are dedicated and talented men and we trust that God will equip and use them in spreading the gospel.

We have some very exciting events coming up in the beginning of 2006. A group of youth and their leaders will be coming from Brandon, Florida to help in our ministries for a week. We are expecting around eighty people from the Bell Shoals Baptist Church. I have worked as translator for this group on several occasions in the past few years and they are a joy to be around. We are looking forward to having them in our own city and trust that God will use them greatly to reach the lost with the gospel.

Our Project Life evangelism team was in the interior of our state this month sharing the gospel in public schools and parks. They had the opportunity to preach to over 3000 students and adults. More than 200 persons made a public profession of faith in Jesus Christ. Several of those persons have begun correspondence Bible courses. It is our goal to get our trained leaders into these interior towns to establish New Testament churches. The additional bus/motor-home that we are purchasing should be almost ready to go out into the interior in the beginning of next year. We have to make some adaptations to the bus so that it is totally self-contained and functional for our purposes. If you sense that God wants you to help with the cost of this work, please send your gift labeled "Project Life".

Now, for you who are ready to be greatly challenged in the cause of Christ! In order for us to attend to our increasing need of space for leadership training, we must move to larger facilities. Since we have no accumulated funds, any location that we move to will cost more than we have resources to purchase. We also sense that a move should not be so nearsighted that it would be necessary to repeat it in another few years. So, we need help in this venture. Any and every amount can and will be used. In a project like this there are small and inexpensive tools and materials that are necessary to the final objective. But, for the lot itself, we will need some hefty donations. We know that only God can work in the way that we are needing and I trust that He is doing that in your heart. The owners of the property that we are considering to buy have asked $900,000. So, you see what I mean when I say that only God can work in the way we are needing?

We hope you have a wonderful holiday season. God's richest blessing on you.

In Christ's love,
Bobby, Charlene, Jessie and Brennen Wacaser

Short Letter About Short Visit...

Dear Friends,

December 2, 2005

Anita and I will be returning to Peru in a few days. We have enjoyed our short time in the States, and yes, our granddaughter, Caroline, is a beautiful baby! We have enjoyed visiting with our family members spread out all over the United States. We are tired, but have enjoyed our trip. When we return to Peru we will be starting a new work in the town of Acomayo, about twenty minutes from Huanuco. Please be in prayer about this. We are expecting great things from God. We will also be preparing for another Institute class in January or March. Thanks to each one that has shown us your hospitality while we have been in the States. Next month I will have a more detailed report of all the Peruvian works we are involved in. God bless each of you. Until next month.

Sheridan and Anita Stanton

DON'T FORGET THE WORKHORSE FUND

This is the General Fund. Out of it comes the missionaries' salaries, expenses, travel, medical, cars, etc. It has not kept pace with rising costs. It needs to increase so that our missionaries might have what they need.
