AN APPEAL TO PRAY IN CONCERT

"You can do more than pray, after you have prayed, but you cannot do more than pray until you have prayed" [John Bunyan].

I'm going to appeal to you this month maybe a little differently than we usually do. Every month, we are updating you on the on-going financial needs our missionaries face to maintain and increase their ministries. I hope you keep all the issues of the Mission Sheets for reference. I am repeating all those same appeals. The needs are still current - the appeals stand.

But, I'm going to ask you also TO PRAY TO GOD AND ASK HIM TO SUPPLY ALL OF THESE NEEDS. I know you pray already. I can assure you that our missionaries pray - and we Directors pray as well. But, I really believe that IF WE ALL COVENANT TOGETHER AND PRAY TO THE FATHER IN CONCERT HE WILL RESPOND.

Does not our Lord Jesus promise that He and the Father will reward us 'OPENLY' if we pray and ask Him 'IN SECRET'? [Read Matthew 6:6]. What is His 'reward'? It is HIS ANSWER AND RESPONSE TO OUR ASKINGS IN SECRET! Please meditate on His promises also in Matthew 7:7-12 and 18:18-20 and especially on Jesus' commission and promise in John 14:12-14. Does our Lord not promise us in all these Scriptures that if we will pray to Him in our secret places - that He will respond out here in the open works of His Kingdom? He does!

Here is what OUR PRAYING TO GOD IN CONCERT ABOUT OUR NEEDS will work among us: [1] It will help us stay focused on this constant need; [2] It will keep our attention on God Who alone can supply all these needs according to His riches in Glory by Christ Jesus; [3] It will stir up the interest and love of our own hearts to respond to the need; and [4] It will magnify God's Grace, promote His Glory, and increase Thanksgiving to Him.

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, 'He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth forever.' Now He that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us THANKSGIVING TO GOD" 2 Corinthians 9:11.

ALL GENERAL FUND
GIVING IS DOWN 8%

DURING 2010

[January-August].

Please ask the Lord of the Harvest how HE wants you to respond to this need.

2011-12 THANKSGIVING

OFFERING GOAL: $100,000.00

PLEASE GIVE AS GENEROUS AN OFFERING AS THE LORD ENABLES YOU TO GIVE. PRAY - PURPOSE - PLAN - PREPARE - PERFORM [Please read 2 Corinthians, chapters 8-9] Our updated TOTAL for last year's THANKSGIVING OFFERING is $63,709.02. As of the end of August, we have approximately $12,000.00 remaining from those funds to carry us through the last four months of 2011. But, we have been disbursing an average of $6,360.00 per month for the first eight months of this year. So, you can do the simple math: we have approximately two months' worth of last year's Thanksgiving Offering remaining.

PERSONAL NOTE OF APPEAL

From Giving Friends Who Wish To Remain Anonymous

To All Churches and BFM Contributors:

The Lord has laid this burden on our heart. We appreciate all the support the churches and individuals do for the missions. But we are asking each church and individual to go $1.00 farther—that is—on a weekly basis add this $1.00 more to your mission contribution. If a church with fifty members would do this, it would mean $200.00 more per month and $2,400.00 more per year.

Imagine what this would mean to the General Fund if sixty, seventy, eighty or one hundred members added the extra $1.00 each week: OUR GENERAL FUND COULD GROW BY $120,000!

Please pray and try to meet this goal over what you now contribute. If we each sacrifice something small, then God can do something mighty.

DON'T FORGET THE WORKHORSE FUND

This is the General Fund. Out of it comes the missionaries' salaries, expenses, travel, medical, cars, etc. It has not kept pace with rising costs.

Please Consider Increasing
Your Offerings

YOU CAN NOW CONTRIBUTE TO BFM VIA CREDIT CARD: Go to our website, www.baptistfaithmissions.org, and click on "Donor Support" and use this added feature. Some of you have already begun to give this way and we thank you!

Dear friends and family, September 8, 2011
I remember having Pastor and Mrs. Doug King from Arcadia, Florida, visiting with us here in Peru ten years ago. We watched the 9/11 terrorists' attacks on the Spanish CNN network with Pastor King asking me to translate everything. It's funny how we can remember our most important life changing events. I still remember where I was when I put my trust in Christ Jesus as my Savior, my wedding, the birth of my two children, and surrendering to God's call to full time ministry. These events help define who I am as a person; I am a child of God, a husband, a father, a missionary and an American! Our prayers continue to be with all of the men and women that lost a husband, wife, father, mother or child. Our country needs more prayers and less pompous political posturing and promises. May God bless our great nation once again!

As to the Calvary Baptist Mission here in Huanuco, we have baptized more young men into the church; one is a medical Doctor.

This work has been such an encouragement for Anita and me because God continues to manifest His power and presence in this young mission church. In spite of all the setbacks and difficulties this work continues to grow. The property we thought we had acquired - turns out that the Title Search came back with some serious legal issues. The poor lady that owns the property is illiterate and does not seem to understand the legal issues involved; we have parted ways with her on good terms. However, we are now back to square one looking for a piece of property where we can build a simple meeting house for the church. We still have all the money for property purchase and even funds to get the first floor under roof. The Lord surely has a much better piece of property waiting for us. We would appreciate your prayers.

The Monday Night Pastor's Class is up and going once again. Attendance has been good. Every once in a while a church or individual from the States sends me some materials or funds to buy materials for these pastors. While in the States during my father's funeral, the Lighthouse Christian Bookstore in Dickson, Tennessee, donated fifty sets of Bible Index Tabs in Spanish. The pastors were very excited and grateful to receive these gifts. The very next Monday night they came to class with very nice, gold-trimmed index tabs on their bibles. The rest of these gifts will be distributed during my next modular class of the Bible Institute.

Anita is recovering from a serious bout with the flu. She has been one sick lady for over a week now. She does seem to be getting better at this time, but she is still weak and has a bad cough. We would appreciate your prayers for her health. I still take a regimen of expensive medications since the mini-stroke last year, but I continue to feel good and enjoy good health. We thank you all for your continued prayers on our behalf. Please make note of our new phone number above and also Anita's new e-mail address. We now use a Magic-Jack phone with a Tennessee phone number; just dial like you would call a number in Tennessee and we will answer here in the mountains of Peru. Technology is truly amazing!

Thanks again to each of you for your love, prayers and financial support. May God continue to bless each of you as you remain faithful to HIM, and may God bless America as we remember and learn the lessons from the terrorists' attacks of September 11, 2001. Until next month.

In HIM by HIS grace,
Sheridan and Anita Stanton

Kids And Grandkids Here From Brazil ... Great Visits With Churches ...

Dear Brethren,

September 2, 2011

Last month we had our kids and grandkids in from Brazil. My daughter Monica lives here in Lexington. My son Adam, who lives in California, was able to come over for a week. This is the first time we have had the whole family together in over nine years. What a fun time. What a blessing. After Adam went back to California I sorta went into an emotional tailspin. Then after Dauro's and Andrew's families returned to Brazil, it really hit me hard again. This kind of thing doesn't usually bother me, but this time it was rough. Probably being so far away from home makes it harder.

One day the grandkids were out in the back yard (here at the mission house in Lexington) and Heloisa noticed that Caleb was over in the corner on his knees. Heloisa is Andrew's oldest daughter and Caleb is Crissy's oldest. She asked him what was going on. He was down on his knees praying and crying. He said, "I just don't deserve all the great things that God has done for me." He then came in, sat with me in the armchair and we talked. He made his profession of faith. Then he went in to share this great news with his dad and mom (Dauro and Crissy, my youngest daughter). What a party we had that day.

Also during one of our family devotions, Alec was touched to be a better son and servant. We were talking about the parable of the two sons whose father called them to work in the field. Alec was really touched by this story. It is so good to see the kids and grandkids with such servant's hearts. Alec is Andrew's boy. He has been saved a little over a year.

We have had some great visits to churches over the past few weeks. Bible Baptist Church of Mount Vernon, Kentucky, and Pastor Don Stayton are always such an encouragement to us. They are winning souls right and left.

Dad went with us on our visit to Bible Baptist Church, Harrisburg, Illinois, where our own Art Donley is pastor. Great visit. Very faithful supporters for many years.

Last Sunday we were with Berry Baptist Church and Pastor Carl Morton. Here is a small country church, but boy are they into missions. I had never been to the church, but it was just like walking into home. The numbers don't matter, but here are some things to think about. Their attendance was 10% of the population of the town of Berry. Not many churches can say that. I know that even when we have our biggest crowds down home it is still only about 2% of the total population. Also the offering they gave us was about $10.00 for every man, woman and child present. That is impressive. I have been to churches with 1,000 members, but I have never received a $10,000.00 offering from any of them. So to God be the glory for churches like Berry Baptist Church.

This week is our annual missions conference in Cruzeiro do Sul. It starts tonight and all of our missionaries and pastors should be there. I wish I could be there, but Bev and I still have two months here in the US.

Thanks for all of your prayers and support. God bless you as much as He has us.

In Christ, Mike Creiglow

B.F.M. - Our Purpose and Mission

Baptist Faith Missions assists Baptist churches to send God-called missionaries to fulfill church-planting missions in the nations of the world.

We believe that "essential Great Commission missions" is to preach the Gospel, evangelize, baptize disciples, establish Baptist churches, and train the disciples to obey everything that our Lord Jesus Christ has commanded.

While we believe that all other outreach ministries and services may accomplish good works and meet worthwhile social and spiritual needs, we believe that our purpose, scope, and focus should concentrate on essential Great Commission Gospel missions.

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Sept. 12, 2011

My heart is overflowing with praise and gratitude. Yesterday was the cherry on the icing of a wonderful month of seeing God at work. He is always at work, but sometimes it is more evident to us than at other times.

Abigail and Nathalie, our two oldest grandchildren, professed their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ through baptism during our morning service. Some time ago they had trusted Christ on separate occasions. They are the children of our son Philip and his wife Amanda, who serve the Lord with us here. They invited many of their friends and we had a record breaking crowd. The place was packed and we did not have enough chairs! Think about putting fifty-one individuals in your living room. In the words of Amanda, their mother, "What an encouraging day yesterday! Proof God IS working in the hearts of my children...and also in the hearts of many friends (atheist and Catholic) who came to witness the baptism."

Two of the visitors were a brother and sister. He is eighteen years old and she is fifteen years old. I mentioned in the past that I joined and sing in a community choir in order to build relationships and witness about Christ. During a break in practice this past Thursday, a lady, who along with her husband sings in the choir, came to speak to me. She asked, "Aren't you a baptist pastor?" After my affirmative answer, she continued, "My fifteen year old daughter, Juliette, has gone to catechism classes and is very interested but does not agree with the Catholic Church. She tried out a Protestant Church and does not like them either. I told her that you were a Baptist pastor and she looked up Baptist on the internet and she has decided that she is in agreement with what the Baptists teach." She then asked about our services and Bible classes.

On Sunday, the young lady came. Since the parents had other commitments, her eighteen year old brother brought her. It was a perfect day for someone attending for the first time. Philip, had one of the men read Colossians 2:6-15, then proclaimed the gospel and explained baptism. Juliette and her brother asked many questions before and after the service.

This is the first time that we have had baptism at our primary location, our home. Previously, we have had the baptisms at various locations using the pools of people who were willing to let us use them for this purpose. Philip bought a small above ground pool that we set up beside our house for this baptism. The girls personally invited their friends to come to their baptism. Their friends took these invitations seriously and we had about twenty first time unsaved persons who came. The parents came and brought their children. It was their first time to witness baptism by immersion. What a wonderful chance to present the Good News of Jesus Christ! I am weeping with joy. Those who came asked questions and made favorable comments and some indicated an interest in returning.

Having the baptism at the place where we have services enables people to get acquainted with where we meet and it breaks the ice for their return.

There have been many other opportunities and blessings, but I must stop and leave space for others in the mission sheet.

In France for Christ,
John and Judy Hatcher

September 5, 2011

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this month's newsletter I would like to relate an experience that I had. The reason I want to relate this experience is two-fold. First, it is typical of the kinds of things I face while I'm ministering here. Second, because it is typical, it completely breaks my heart because it keeps the Kenyan people mired in sin and depravity and keeps them from fully following the Lord Jesus Christ.

The experience started by a simple visit to the post office. I went to check my box. I thought I would be in and out within thirty seconds. I ended up staying there for two hours. On my way out of the post office I was approached by a couple of men who told me they were from a marketing firm and they were giving away free toothbrushes. I told them I didn't need a toothbrush but they persisted. They proceeded to show me that each toothbrush had a sticker on it and on the back of the sticker would be the prize that I would win just for taking the toothbrush. If I won a prize I would only have to pay them 300 shillings (about $3.50). There were fifteen possible prizes I could win all the way from dvd players, televisions, cash, cell phones, to other high priced prizes. If I didn't win I would receive a free t-shirt and cap as a consolation and I wouldn't have to pay anything. I knew immediately it was a scam, I just didn't know yet how they profited from it. Normally I would just walk away, but somehow the Spirit of the Lord impressed upon me to stay and talk with these men and by the time we were done talking, the whole group of con-men (there were seven to eight in all) were gathered around me to hear what I was telling them.

The conversation must have been from the Lord because to call a Kenyan a liar or a thief is about the worst thing you can say. However, I didn't call them this. By the end they were all admitting this among themselves and had confessed the whole scam to me. The scam went like this. They could buy cheap toothbrushes for ten to fifteen shillings each (12-17 cents). Then they bought a bunch of "prizes." Actually, they only bought one prize - a cell phone antennae, which they could purchase for less than fifty shillings (55 cents). Then they put stickers on the toothbrushes and EVERY toothbrush was a winner. Except, EVERY toothbrush won the person (you guessed it) a brand new cell phone antennae. Thus, what every "winner" got was a free ten shilling toothbrush and a cell phone antennae worth fifty shillings. And all they had to pay for this (as a registration fee) was a low 300 shillings. I was very surprised when they confessed this to me because no Kenyan likes to be caught in his scam. But, confess they did, and after I showed them many Scripture verses they were all confessing to me that they were liars, con-men and thieves.

These men (and women) were finally confessing that what they were doing was dishonest and cheating. But here are the major problems here in Kenya. First, these men completely justified all of their actions because: (1) every business man does this, (2) it is the only way they can make a living, (3) there are no repercussions for their actions, and (4) it was what they were taught in school. They could see nothing wrong with what they were doing. The bigger problem is that each one of these men claimed to be (in their own words), "Saved Christians and followers of Jesus." One man was even a "pastor." Do you see why this breaks my heart and makes me hurt so much for the Kenyan people? Here are "Christians," "Pastors," and university educated men who are totally scamming the people and robbing them of what little money they have. And doing it all without feeling any remorse whatsoever. This kind of action happens all the time from the highest of government officials down to the lying beggar. And nobody sees anything wrong with it. I grieve for the Kenyan people who need the grace of God to lead them to Jesus where they will find redemption and remission of sins. In your praying this month pray for Petero (Peter), Musa (Moses), Yakobo (Jacob), Danson, Priska, and Purity - These are the names of the four young con-men and the two young con-women that I have spent so much time witnessing to. Pray that the Word of God would change their hearts and, in turn, lead them to lead their fellow Kenyans to the Lord Jesus Christ as well.

Until next month, beloved. May God's peace and joy be with you.

For the glory of God in East Africa,
Roger, Julie, Emily, Amy, and Josiah Tate

Dear Friends, September 14, 2011

When we began the construction of our building for our new church plant, two of our volunteer leaders quit their paying jobs to work fulltime on the project with no pay. We worked on the building for three months, until our funds ran out. At that time they needed to get back into the paying market so they began looking for jobs again. We are thankful to God because both of these young men, Luiz and Valter, got much better jobs than they had previously, each with almost double the salaries they made before. They still come out after hours and on weekends when we need them since we are back into the construction process again. What great people to work with, and what a great Lord to provide in this way! We have our windows and doors paid for. Thanks to you who so graciously contributed to this project. If you feel like you got left out, then we are now going to work toward finishing our concrete floor. There are 3,200 square feet in our building and we need $6,400, or $2.00 per square foot. How many square feet would you like to help us pour?

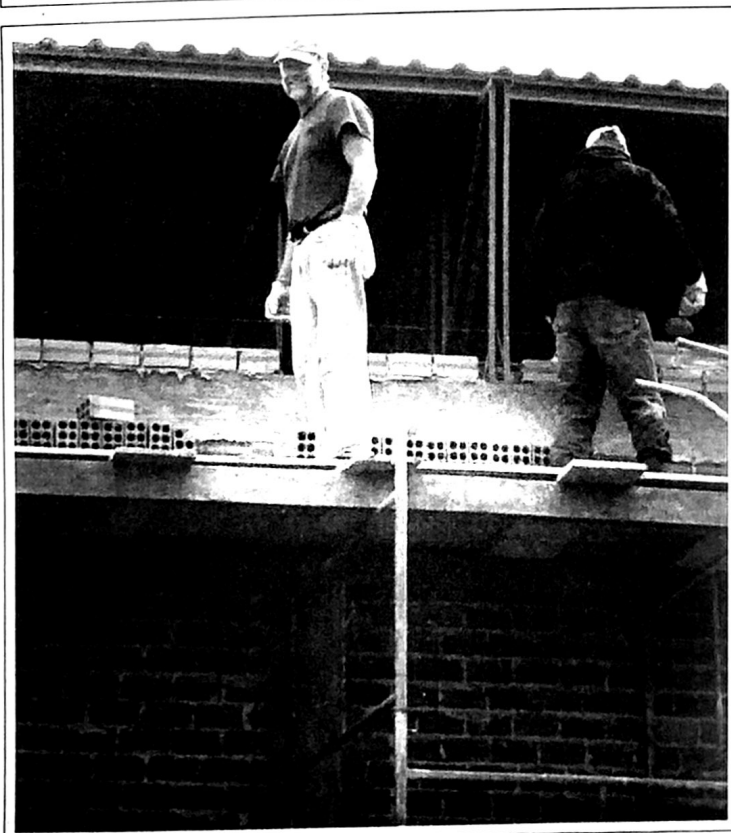

Two of the Project Life evangelistic teams were out on the highways this month and the other two worked in the metropolitan area surrounding the capital. In all, we had the opportunity to share the gospel with over 12,000 people in the public schools and city squares. One of our bus motors blew up, and so we had to sell one of our vans to pay to repair it. It is back running again, we are happy to report.

In the past I have reported on a very exciting ministry opportunity that involves sports. Many of you know that in Brazil soccer is called "futebol" or football, like in Europe. But the sport of football, as Americans know it, is rapidly becoming popular in Brazil now. Professional teams are forming steadily and I have been invited by one of the head coaches to partner with the league to develop a strong relationship with Christian Athletes and coaches from the USA. If you are a decent football player and/or coach and would like to be used of the Lord to touch many people for Christ, this is one fantastic window of opportunity. I recently read Tim Tebow's book, Through My Eyes and was thrilled to see how God is using that young man for His glory. If you know of any young men who aspire to use their football ability to share the gospel, even on a short term project, please ask them to contact me.

Thank you so much for your love, prayers, support and concern for us. May the Lord richly bless you.

In Christ's love,

Bobby, Charlene and Brennen Wacaser

Dear Brethren, September 9, 2011

In my last letter I mentioned that I was about to finish the course that I was teaching in First Baptist Church in Science Hill, well I did finish that, and I am now concentrating my attention on the work of Thompson Road Baptist, here in Lexington.

I also spoke, in my last letter, about trying to set up a permanent file of two copies of each issue of the Mission Sheets that have been printed over the past seventy years. Over the years the surplus copies have been stored in all kinds of ways and many times with no order at all. This past week I have gone through hundreds of them and have been able to complete files for twenty of the seventy years, and now only have fifty years yet to go.

Also this month I traveled with Mike to Harrisburg, Illinois, to visit Bible Baptist Church and pastor Art Donley. I was invited to preach on Sunday morning in their radio ministry. Please pray for the Donley family; Mrs. Donley is afflicted with the same illness that my Betty suffered with for many years.

In His Name,

Bobby D. Creiglow

WILL YOU GIVE AT LEAST $1 A DAY FOR WORLDWIDE MISSIONS?

I know that many of you are giving much more than that - but if you are not giving a personal offering each month to our GENERAL FUND to help maintain our missionaries' essential needs, will you ask the Lord to supply you with a regular monthly offering of $30 to our GENERAL FUND? Together we can provide them with the funds by which they can continue their daily ministries.

"THANK YOU! THANK YOU!" GIVING FRIENDS

Never a month goes by without our thanking God for all our faithful Giving Friends who contribute so regularly and sacrificially to our General Fund offerings. Also, hardly a month goes by without my speaking personally with some of you and having the opportunity to thank you personally for your participation in this missions ministry.

I was speaking with one of our dear supporters recently [you shall remain anonymous -but you know who you are]. She is a widow of very modest means, but she continues to live modestly on purpose so she can continue to give to missions.

And, when I thanked her for her long-time financial support for BFM, she told me, "I'll do without something else before I will NOT give to Baptist Faith Missions." May God increase her tribe!

God has blessed her - and God will bless her. And I pray also that God will use her example and testimony to challenge all of us to follow suit.

1 Samuel 25.17 Now, therefore, KNOW and CONSIDER WHAT YOU WILL DO.

$50,000.00 MONTHLY GENERAL FUND GOAL

Please continue to concentrate your giving to the General Fund which supplies the monthly commitments we have made to our missionaries. Without sufficient General Fund offerings, the base support for our missionaries' essential needs is deficient.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT! OUR 2011 THANKSGIVING OFFERING IS SWIFTLY APPROACHING!

We encourage you to begin planning right now for your 2011-12 THANKSGIVING OFFERING. [Actually, we hope you have been preparing since giving your last Thanksgiving Offering!] Purpose in your heart what you believe the Lord wants you to give [2 Corinthians 9:7] and begin asking the Lord to supply you with those offerings so you can give them. 2 Corinthians 9:8 promises that, "God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." God is ABLE, and God is FAITHFUL. Lay it aside month by month in anticipation of this coming November so you will have it to give at that time.
