Enjoy Milking Our New Cows... Furlough Planned For November...

Dear friends, August 1, 2012

Wow! August is here. For those of you that live in the US you are in the middle of summer. Well, for those of us who live in Garca, we are enjoying a wonderful winter, with the average temperature of seventy degrees. The sun rises and sunsets this time of the year are absolutely gorgeous!

One of the new things around here is milking cows. About a month or two ago Odali bought some cows. The boys have enjoyed going each morning to milk them. One of the cows loves cookies, well she loves just about anything that is eatable. This has been a great time for the boys and their dad. They usually have other kids that go with them.

We have several new people living here with us now. They are adults or mothers with children. There is a lady that is living here that is waiting for her house that is being built by the city. The city subsidizes homes for those with low income and with no conditions of having a job that would guarantee them a good salary. These people lived in an area of danger. Marcia is her name. She has been coming to church along with her thirteen year old son. His name is Alex. Alex has made friends with our boys and is like one of the family. Actually he has started calling Odali and I mom and dad. He has not seen or heard of his dad for many years. The last time he saw him, his dad was trying to kill his mom. Nice memories right? Pray for them especially that they will accept Christ as Savior. Marcia does not read or write. We are trying to work out a time to help her. We don't know for sure if she has a difficulty or if she just quit her studies early. Also we have another lady here who has some learning disabilities. Since this area used to be coffee farms many people did not finish the studies, but she also does not read or right and does not know money.

Our church is doing well. We work on Sunday morning especially to reach out to the children and teens. Our city, like so many others, has been taken over by drugs and prostitution. A junior age girl told her Sunday school teacher a few days ago that she didn't know what would happen to them if our church ever closed. On Sunday they spend about three hours here with us. We have Sunday school and service and they play and eat then we take them home. Last Sunday we had several mothers. Most all the kids come from single mom homes. Our Sunday night services are especially for adults. Last Sunday we had several visitors.

We are planning on taking a furlough late November of this year. Our youngest daughter is having her baby then. It's been seven years since Amelia saw her dad. Also we have two granddaughters that we haven't seen. So we thought that that would be a good time for us to take a break. We started on our boys documents and we hope that all goes well. We are not sure where we will be living yet. We are looking into finding a house to rent. Pray for us as we get things ready for us to take our furlough.

Thanks for your financial support and your prayers. Please continue to pray for us. May God bless each of you.

Love in Christ,
Odali and Kathy Barros

Dear friends and family, August 10, 2012

These last six weeks have been totally AWESOME. We have had Americans visiting with us from July 28th til August 2nd. They were a great help in the work. We have lots to tell you about. First we got three young men from different Baptist churches, and they came to spend six weeks to experience the mission field. With them we began to prepare for the month of July. The second group arrived and we began the work that we had been planning. Our first Bible School of the month was in a very poor neighborhood. These children had never had contact with a group of Americans (north Americans) before so this created a stir in the neighborhood. I am sure that helped with the attendance. The children loved to hear English spoken. While one group was doing the Bible School another group was helping construct dividers for the office in the Social Center. Also they built an area where medicine could be stored waiting to be distributed at a later date. Lots of doors were opened for future ministry. This work lasted two days.

We then took the group to the state of Rio de Janeiro where we had heard of an Indian tribe that we could take the gospel to. This tribe is the Guarani Indians. We arrived at their village by driving about ten miles on a dirt road (that day it was mud). We did not have trouble getting there because being from Owsley County, Kentucky, we had experience on these kinds of roads. This tribe has been placed on this mountain side by the Federal Government and told to survive the best way they can. Needless to say they have many, many needs. So knowing some of these needs beforehand we asked the Americans to bring warm clothes to distribute to the children as we are in our cold season. We united in the community church and made bags of these clothes and hygiene supplies (soap, toothpaste, brushes, etc.). We then went to the village where we met with the Chief of the tribe and we gave him blankets for the cold and a special gift for him. We gave him a leather man knife with all the bells and whistles. This sealed our friendship. He then gave his permission for us to enter the village and work with the children. But now to add another twist-lots of the children did not read nor write in their language (Guarani) nor in Portuguese. And just some of the adults speak Portuguese as their language is Guarani. This was a challenge to say the least. Well we were able to get past all these problems and the Bible School was AWESOME with the help of the group from Porter Memorial Baptist Church, in Lexington, Kentucky. And the help of the three young men that had been with us since June. One of the young men is from First Baptist Church in Centerville, Georgia, and another is from Second Baptist Church in Warner Robbins, Georgia, and the other is from Garca Br. God put an AWESOME group together to do this special project. While part of the group was doing a Bible School the others were able to help in the construction of a widow's home. They were able to build two major walls on the home and left some materials for another group to continue the work. We have heard that another Baptist church from Rio has come this weekend to finish the house. While there we discovered that there is at least two believing Christians. What an opportunity to tell people that do not know about our Lord and Savior about what He has done for them. I also found out that there is a Bible printed in their native language. One of the young men that was here called his Sunday School class and they received an offering on the spot for about ten Bibles for this Indian tribe. I think we need to start a "drive" for Bibles for this

Dear Brothers and Sisters, Aug. 2, 2012

I am writing a little earlier than usual. We have more than enough news for our allotted space in the the Missions Sheets, so we will share it with you and save what comes later for next month.

The young man who trusted Christ last month was baptized a couple of weeks ago. We do not have a baptistry so we just use a place that has "much water". Theo asked to be baptized near his "fishing hole", a location on a river not from his house where he had fished with his dad and friend. We had a special afternoon meeting in this beautiful setting and a good number of believers and interest folks were there to witness the baptism. This included a couple of people (not in the pictures) that were just in the area. One of our men remarked that it may have been God's way to give them the gospel. Theo was in his mothers womb when she and his father first began coming. His father was the first person to trust the Lord and follow the Lord in baptism here.

Though our attendance is usually down in the summer, we have recently had a good number on Sundays with a number of visitors. In my memory serves me well, we have had visitors every Sunday during the past month. One of these, this past Sunday, was a man we met at the neighborhood picnic last month. He seems to be quite interested and said he would return with his three boys when they get back from visiting their grandparents.

The Lord has opened doors for us to have increasing interaction with several families in our neighborhood. As a matter of fact we are watching houses for several people while they are on vacation. When they give us their keys and ask us to take in their mail, it is evidence that they trust us. When people trust you, they are more likely to listen to what you say. It is an indication that one has an effective life witness to them.

One of the families, whose house we are watching, moved in across the street from us last year. As they were preparing to leave, Judy got the idea of giving a CD to them that is Bible verses set to music sung by children. They were very appreciative and said that they would listen to it during their trip. This family has three primary school aged children.

Another blessing during the last couple of months is that some who have trusted the Lord in the past have return to participate more faithfully.

Philip and Amanda, our son and beautiful daughter (French way of saying daughter-in-law) return along with their children this coming Friday, the Lord willing. They have been in the states for six weeks to visit family and friends there. What a blessing it is to have them here working with us. As we have mentioned in the past, Philip works as an engineer to support himself and their family as missionaries here. It has been really encouraging to have participants from the congregation stepping up to the plate while they are away. Our job is to make disciples to Christ.

I will close, since my letter is long enough, with the news that Judy's annual exam showed that she is still cancer free and now has been forever 11 years. God has truly blessed us with the opportunity to serve Him together. Thanks for your faithful participation with us.

Joyfully in Christ,
John and Judy Hatcher

here they purchased food baskets and were honored to deliver these baskets with them to the needy families in our church.

Well we have said "Good bye" to our three young men. They have made an AWESOME impact on our youth here in Caraguatubata at Igreja Batista Novo Tempo. They are already missing them.

So we have an empty nest again so if you want to come see us the beds have been changed and everything is clean with a mint on the pillow. "So come on down."

tribe. What about one hundred Bibles? That would cost about $1,000.00 dollars. Are you in for this? These Indians need lots of prayer regarding personal health, housing, just to start with and all of them but two for their personal salvation.

When the Porter group left the parents of Ross the young man from Centerville came to spend a week before taking their son back home. They were able to finish some drywall in the office/school room at the school. While

They have played by all the governmental rules and processed their purchase through all the legal channels — but it has proven to be fraudulently registered from its entry into Kenya and original registration. Dear Brethren and Fellow Workers, Greetings from Brazil in the Name of our Great Savior. Alta and I have had a good month and have gone to our mission in Assai each Sunday morning. Our attendance has not grown but we have the promise that where two or three are gathered together in His Name He is present with us. His promise is His Word will not return void. We are trying to be faithful and one day the Issac will be born.

God has blessed us in the old age of our life. It is a great joy to look back over the years and see how God has been faithful in all His promises. Our children are serving the Lord, all of our grandchildren are faithfully serving the Lord and our great grandchildren are being saved as they come to the age of accountability.

Another great thrill is to see how God has blessed and is blessing the works that he gave us the privilege of beginning. Those works have also begun and are beginning other new works. We want to encourage you young persons to surrender your lives to serve the Lord. Make the surrender while young; you will never regret doing the best for your Lord and Savior.

(Just had a wonderful interruption of fifteen minutes — a phone call from John and Judy in France. The Lord knows how we love them and miss them.)

Last week we had a wonderful two day visit with David. He came down to our State for the dedication of two new buildings: One in the center of Parana and the other in Curitiba where Bobby and Charlene Wacaser work. We praise and thank the Lord for how He is using our children in His vineyard. They are all so far away and sometimes the heart aches to see them. Kathy is the closest and we get to see her every two or three months.

All of the work is going well in this part of Brazil. In Urai the work is going well. The pastor, Marcio, is doing a good job. There are about ten young people and two young married couples who are faithful and working in the church and congregations. There are six or seven who study in the Seminary. Pray for us. At age eighty-seven things are not so easy.

God bless you, we love you,
John and Alta Hatcher

2012 THANKSGIVING OFFERING

Please be making your plans right now to give as generous and liberal a Thanksgiving Offering as the Lord enables you. The needs are great and on-going...and God is faithful! Remember, when you support the General Fund of BFM, you are supplying the essential needs of twelve faithful missionary families to obey Jesus' Great Commission to go into all the world, preach the Gospel, baptize those believers, establish New Testament Baptist churches, and teach those churches to believe and practice everything Jesus Christ has commanded us. You will not find anywhere on this planet more Scriptural, committed, and fruitful missionaries than those who serve in partnership with BFM.

Here are just some of God's inspired instructions on giving:

1. Purpose in your heart what you believe God wants you to give [2 Corinthians 9.7].

2. Plan your giving and your gift well in advance of the occasion [2 Corinthians 8.10-11; 9.2].

3. Trust God to give you something to give back to Him [2 Corinthians 9.8-11].

4. Lay something aside every week or month in prospect of the offering [2 Corinthians 9.3-4].

5. Give generously and hilariously...with thanksgivings to God [2 Corinthians 9.6-7].

6. Give in obedience to God and His Gospel...and to express your love to Him [2 Corinthians 8.7-8; 9.13].

7. Give to God and His Glory [2 Corinthians 8.5, 9; 9.11-15].

8. Give for the telling of His Gospel in all the regions beyond you [2 Corinthians 10.16].

9. Give to Christ's Gospel servants to be like God [3 John 5-7].

10. Give to participate and share in the fruits of the harvest [3 John 8; Philippians 4.17-20].

Make Several River Trips ... Outboard Motor Stops Without Warning ...

Cruzeiro do Sul, Acre Brazil

Dear Brethren, August 2, 2012

Well we made it through July in pretty good shape. In years past we have had a bit of a slump when the dry season kicks in full blast in July. Not this year. Our attendance has held up very well. Sunday school has had over four hundred every week and our Wednesday night service has actually grown to over four hundred. Friday prayer meeting, too. Eight more people were saved during the month and eighteen were baptized last Sunday morning. That was followed by the best Lord's supper service ever.

This month I visited two of our chapels here in town. There were over one hundred and fifty present the night I preached at Cruzeiro do Sul. One woman was saved. There were over three hundred present at Remanso. I had already been there one other time this month to teach a couple of classes on rearing children.

Last week I made a trip down river. Hudson and Eliesio went down river before me to start visiting the congregations at Campinas, Acaituba, Nova Esperanca and Santo Antonio. When I got to Nova Esperanca they were anxiously awaiting my arrival. They had motor trouble. It was already pretty late when I got there and we were supposed to be in IPIXUNA for services that same night. I whipped out my toolbox, got a piece of aluminum roofing and a butcher knife from the locals, and in a few minutes had their water pump "fixed." We got to IPIXUNA after dark without any other problems. By the way, before I reached the village where the guys were I went through an unbelievably violent thunder/rain storm. It was all I could do to control my little open boat. Anyway, we walked in to church at the close of the song service. The pastor called me straight into the pulpit and, no, I did not know I was going to preach that night. No big surprise though. They do this to me all the time, everywhere I go. Afterward we had a meeting with the pastor and elders of the church to encourage them to pick up the pace and load in the mission work along their section of the river. Good meeting and this time I think they will take off. Pray that they will.

The next morning I was back on the river an hour before dawn. I needed to be back in Cruzeiro, where, this time, I was scheduled to speak. The morning was very cold. Then after a few hours of uneventful humming of my little outboard it suddenly stopped without warning. That is never a good sign. If it starts to miss and skip it is usually a sign of things that can be repaired. After I checked out all I could and pulled the rope starter for a few dozen times I started overheating. From extreme cold to extreme heat. I paddled over to the bank, climbed onto a log and called Bev from my satellite phone!!! Thank the Lord and thanks to Park Ridge Baptist Church who gave me the offering to buy it. The phone is an awesome tool. Bev called the guys at IPIXUNA and they came to my rescue. We made a way to tow my boat behind theirs. It was pretty scary, but God protected us and the equipment. We made it back to town just in time for me to shower and shave before going to the pulpit. The day before, I had already done a voluntary twenty-four hour fast. The day of the return I did a twenty-four hour involuntary fast! The service was to celebrate my daughter Crissy's college graduation. Most of her classmates and families were there, so I got to preach the gospel to a bunch of first time visitors. All the struggle to get there was well worth it.

One more note about the motor: It was the electronic ignition that went out, so there was no way I could repair it in the field. I ordered the parts from the States. They cost me $290.00. No, that was not a hint! It was a call for help.

Thanks for all of your prayers and support. God bless you as much as He has us.

In Christ, Mike Creiglow

Spending Time With Family And Friends ... Sharing The Work With Churches ...

Dear friends, August 9, 2012

Spending time with grandkids, family and friends is the highlight of furlough, and visiting our supporting churches is also a joy. However, traveling to the churches is the hard part. The term "furlough" generally means "a leave of absence from work - to lay off from work," but for missionaries "on furlough" usually means more work and travel.

The month of May was truly a month of rest for us, and June and July have been fairly busy for Anita and me, but starting with August, "the race is on." We now have every Sunday booked up between now and December; most of those Sundays we will be in two churches. Several missions' conferences are on the schedule also. We will be travelling to Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida. We have already visited churches in Mississippi, Louisiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and Tennessee. We love to see everyone and renew old acquaintances and make new friends, but, like everyone else, we are getting older! Your prayers would be very much appreciated for our safe travels. Thanks.

Week days we have had medical check-ups and dental appointments. My blood pressure is up again and the doctors are working on that. Anita is having trouble with her knee again but is managing. We will both be having dental work done off and on between now and the time we leave in January. Please pray for our continued health.

I am studying to be licensed for administering a few types of personality profile tests and will be attending a three day conference of the National Association of Christian Counselors in November. I like to learn and I really enjoy teaching and preaching, but as I said, "it's the travelling I could do without!"

The month of July we had the privilege of sharing with several churches about the Work of the Lord in Peru that HE has allowed us to be involved in. We were with the Calvary Baptist Church in Dickson, TN; the Elliot Baptist Church in Elliot, MS; the Victory Baptist Church in New Salisbury, IN, and last Sunday with the Immanuel Baptist Church of Cold Spring, KY. The Calvary Mission continues faithful as well as all the other works that have sent me reports. We look forward to having the opportunity to share with the rest of you when we get to your churches.

Anita and I thank all of you for your continued prayers and monthly support. We are looking forward to visiting with many of you in the next several months. Until next time.

In HIM by HIS grace,
Sheridan and Anita Stanton

Dear praying friends, August 3, 2012

It is now the month of August and we are past halfway through the year 2012. What a blessing it is, the time that the Lord gives us to serve Him. May we be faithful to serve Him, whenever or wherever that is. One of my favorite Scripture verses is Isaiah 6:8, where the Word of God says, "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me." I hope and pray this is our desire before the Lord.

In ministry news, the church in Shangalamwe is continuing along well. Over the past few weeks I have really seen how the people here need Biblical teaching from the Word of God. My good friend Roger Tate and I have been working with the people for months now, and it has been exciting to watch them grow spiritually, take in the Word of God, and follow it. Our challenge to them is not only to know the Word, but follow it, practice it, obey it, and reach others. Several have been visiting, so we are thankful for this. We ask you to pray for us, that we would have His help in all areas and progress of this ministry. Please pray for us as we teach, that the teaching would be understandable and that they would not only hear the Word, but be doers of the Word. Please also pray that the people would trust the Lord, wholly and completely. Isaiah 26:4 states, "Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength." We will keep you updated on the progress of this ministry and we appreciate your prayers.

The hospital ministry is going well. My wife enjoys this and has been doing this work with the mothers and babies for a few years now. It is a blessing for her to be able to be involved with this. Many of the mothers and children there have been reached with what God has provided, and what a joy it is to serve them. Proverbs 19:17 says, "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again." What a challenge from Scripture this is. Thanks to each one who has sent supplies or given sacrificially to this ministry. Some of the babies there are abandoned and have many struggles, so we would appreciate your prayers for them also. May God bless you for your heart for missions.

The Annex prison is continuing well, for which I thank the Lord. The Lord has provided good students of the Word, those who seem to be genuinely interested in knowing and obeying the Bible and what it teaches. We are now in the New Testament of the teachings and will soon be looking at the ministry Jesus had while on earth, as well as other teachings. Just recently, I taught some from Luke 1:37, which states, "For with God nothing shall be impossible." What is impossible with man is possible with God. We serve an all-powerful God!

Please keep our family in your prayers, for safety, health, faithfulness to the Lord and the work here in Kitale, and that we would be the examples before our children that we need to be. Camille is now nearly walking, which does not seem possible. What a blessing she is to our family. McKenna is the typical little girl, lots of energy and into many things. They keep us on our toes, to say the least. Pray for us as we seek to lead them in the ways of the Lord. God bless you all so much and we will keep you updated.

In Kenya, Nathan and Carrie Radford

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I suppose that if I am going to be an honest missionary then I need to report the good with the bad. Last month when I sat down to write my report I was excited and everything I wrote was good, uplifting, and encouraging. Unfortunately, what I have to write about this month I am not so excited about. It is not as uplifting or encouraging. I still hope you spend the time to read it, though, as true life and ministry is filled with ups and downs, with evil and good, with blessings and hardship, with encouraging times and not so encouraging times. Don't get me wrong, I am not discouraged, depressed, nor down. It's just that in the course of any ministry and work for God there are mountains and valleys.

Let me start with the church that we organized just last month (Kanisa la Baptist! la Shangalamwe - Baptist Church of Shangalamwe). It is still going strong and I still have high hopes for it. The people there love the Lord and love to worship and fulfill the commission of Christ. But what I have been waiting to happen has now happened. You might have guessed it. It has to do with money. The patriarch of the church finally approached us for help. He told us he didn't have any food and that he needed our assistance. We have been dreading this from the beginning and the start of the group because we know well the two most likely outcomes from this scenario. Outcome #1 looks like this: We organize a group of Kenyan believers into a church; After some amount of time they begin to ask us for money, aid, and help; Having compassion on their needs we help them with monetary gifts, food gifts, etc; This begins a vicious, downward, irrevocable cycle that ultimately leads to DEPENDENCY and PATERNALISM;

Inaugural Service In New Auditorium . . . Brennen Enjoys Being A Translator . . .

Dear Friends, August 8, 2012

The inaugural service in our new auditorium went extremely well. We had been meeting in our largest classroom until we could get the auditorium floor poured and also get the lighting installed. With those done, we made the move into the larger space and the Lord blessed to give us a great turnout in attendance. At our first service there were about one hundred and seventy present. About half of those were some of our brothers and sisters from other churches wanted to celebrate the moment with us, but the other half were mostly unevangelized family and friends of our present members. This was especially encouraging to us all since we began this new church with only 8 members a little over a year ago. God has blessed us at every step along the way providing us with opportunities and resources. We know that He will continue to bless because we know that He completes what He begins and this work is certainly possible only through Him.

We had twenty-seven missions volunteers in our intensive training this month. After a two weeks of classroom teaching and workshops we took them out into the field to apply what they had learned. We had the amazing opportunity to share the gospel with over 15,200 people during the course of the month. Most of this outreach was done in the parks and squares of outlying towns and cities. There were over three hundred professions of faith in Jesus Christ as a result and we helped to get those folks connected to a local Baptist church and started in daily Bible study.

My son, Brennen, who is fifteen years old, got the privilege to be the translator for a group of visiting Baptist Seminary faculty and students. He did a very good job (if I say so myself) and he really enjoyed the opportunity. He is a little bit shy, normally, but doesn't shrink from the challenge of speaking publicly for the Lord. I am grateful to God for giving me the privilege of having two kids who love the Lord and who are engaged in making Him known to others.

With the blessing of some special offerings we have continued the process of completing the building of our new church plant. We thank you who have contributed generously to this project. We are certain the Lord will bless you.

Tomorrow a group of youth from Tampa, Florida, will arrive to partner with us in evangelism in the public schools and parks. We will be taking two of the Project Life teams and their motorhomes into to the neighborhoods where there is a dense population and very little gospel witness. My daughter, Jessie, is coming with the team and will be the coordinator of the team of fifteen translators. She has done this with another group earlier this year and did an excellent job and we are looking forward to having her back with us and helping us. Few things are as pleasing as working together with our children in the service of the Lord. We are very thankful that He allows us this privilege.

Thank you for your faithful prayers and support of our ministries here in southern Brazil.

In Christ's love,

Bobby, Charlene and Brennen Wacaser

WILL YOU GIVE AT LEAST $1 A DAY FOR WORLDWIDE MISSIONS?

I know that many of you are giving much more than that - but if you are not giving a personal offering each month to our GENERAL FUND to help maintain our missionaries' essential needs, will you ask the Lord to supply you with a regular monthly offering of $30 to our GENERAL FUND? Together we can provide them with the funds by which they can continue their daily ministries.

Moving or Getting A New Address?

You can help keep our cost down and assure that you do not miss any issue of the "Mission Sheet" if you will notify us of any change of address. When writing please include your old and new address.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE: www.baptistfaithmissions.org

We are making our website more and more our primary source of information for all things BFM. We are updating and refreshing it every few days — and more added features are on the way. We will be telling you more about them as we roll them out. I want to take this opportunity to recognize and thank Jason Estes for his personal contributions of time, expenses, and expertise to rebuild and host our website. And, also, I want to thank Sarah Wainright for her service posting our missionaries' newsletters [and all our other news and updates] and for adding a whole lot of color, variety, spiff, and attractiveness to her posts. Thanks, Jason and Sarah!

TATES

The church is ruined. Outcome #2 looks like this: We organize a group of Kenyan believers into a church; After some amount of time they begin to ask us for money, aid, and help; Knowing the problem of dependency and paternalism that is the sure outcome of us giving them money and gifts, we spend great amounts of time teaching them why they should help each other, depend on the Lord, and not beg the missionary for money; All the members of the church begin to realize that they will not be receiving money and gifts from this missionary (what they were probably expecting from the beginning) and slowly begin to drift away and make themselves scarce until they are no longer around; Those who have been "spurned" begin to tell everyone in the village that these are stingy missionaries that are selfish and unloving; We are left with no members in the church; The church is ruined. Those are the two scenarios that I keep seeing played out over and over again. After much prayer and wisdom seeking, Nathan and I decided to help the family by providing them with food. It was a very difficult decision because we never really know if we are getting the whole truth and because we are quite familiar with Outcome #1 above. We fear Outcome #1 even more because when we tried to ascertain the families' financial situation we found out it is bleak. The patriarch of the family is seventy years old and has no job and supposedly no retirement. They have no farm or land to farm. Their children and neighbors are not willing to help them. They are taking care of four orphaned grandchildren. And they have no hope for any future income. I kept asking them, "What are your plans for the future?" Ultimately, they have no plans for the future. Actually, Julie may have hit the nail on the head when she told me later, "Roger, YOU are their plan for the future." I'm afraid she might just be right. I hope that we have made the right decision and yet can still stay off the path of dependency and paternalism. We will only know as things unfold in the future. On the bright side we do have two additional people who would like to join this small church.

Nathan and I are scheduled to head out to Shangalamwe later this week to talk to them about salvation and baptism. Please pray for Baptist Church of Shangalamwe.

Briefly, now, because I am out of space. Please pray for our car situation. I have found out that the car I paid a lot of money for a couple of years ago was not properly registered by the authorities in the Kenyan government when it was imported (This happened years before I bought it either by human error or corruption). Bottom line: The Criminal Investigation Department wants to impound my car (which, if they do, I will never see it again). When I refused to hand it over to them they threatened to arrest me. I would like to avoid being arrested as well as having my car impounded and stolen from me. Please pray about this situation as well.

See, I told you this month's report wasn't as uplifting as last month's. Hope you read it anyway.

Until next month, beloved. May God's peace and joy be with you.

For the glory of God in East Africa,
Roger, Julie, Emily, Amy, and Josiah Tate

BELIEVE IT OR NOT! OUR 2012 THANKSGIVING OFFERING IS SWIFTLY APPROACHING!

We encourage you to begin planning right now for your 2012 THANKSGIVING OFFERING. [Actually, we hope you have been preparing since giving your last Thanksgiving Offering!] Purpose in your heart what you believe the Lord wants you to give [2 Corinthians 9:7] and begin asking the Lord to supply you with those offerings so you can give them. 2 Corinthians 9:8 promises that, "God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." God is ABLE, and God is FAITHFUL. Lay it aside month by month in anticipation of this coming November so you will have it to give at that time.
